

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

John 3:16-17

The Prayer Life of KCBC

We believe that God is calling us to spend more time in prayer as individuals, in small groups and as a church so; we have been finding ways to increase our opportunities to pray together.

- ✿ We have a thriving prayer chain if you would like to be alerted of prayer needs by phone or e-mail please see Nat.
- ✿ Offering prayer for individuals after our services .
- ✿ At 10am each Sunday before the service members of the Prayer Ministry team and the Worship Group pray together in the Sunday School room.
- ✿ Encourage prayer triplets - two have been already formed.
- ✿ Sunday evening meetings where the focus is on prayer – in quietness and aloud.

The first one in 2017 is on Sunday 27th of January starting at 7:30pm

As we start a new year maybe it is time to take stock and consider if your prayer life would benefit from any of the above....

If you would like more information about any of the above, please see David or one of the leadership team.

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing ”

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other...

Thanks to all those who have taken the time to provide verses for this part of the newsletter over the last year I really appreciate it and am sure it has been a source of encouragement.

Thank you

Sarah

Just a thought: from Lynn Dove

“Lucy Maude Montgomery in her classic, Anne of Green Gables book said, “Isn’t it nice to think that tomorrow is a new day with no mistakes in it yet?”

It has become one of my most favorite quotes but also one I remember every New Year’s Eve. The New Year begins with great fanfare and excitement; a New Year full of promise and expectation AND a New Year with no mistakes in it...yet.

Gate of the year – otherwise known as God Knows

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: “Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown.”

And he replied:

“Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way.”

So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night.

And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

So heart be still:

What need our little life

Our human life to know,

If God hath comprehension?

In all the dizzy strife

Of things both high and low,

God hideth His intention.

God knows. His will

Is best. The stretch of years

Which wind ahead, so dim

To our imperfect vision,

Are clear to God. Our fears

Are premature; In Him,

All time hath full provision.

Then rest: until

God moves to lift the veil

From our impatient eyes,

When, as the sweeter features

Of Life's stern face we hail,

Fair beyond all surmise

God's thought around His creatures

Our mind shall fill.
