Our topic will be 'Justice'.

In churches today, we are more inclined to think about the grace and mercy of the Lord and how we avoid the punishment due to us because of the Cross. Justice, we assume, is for those who ignore the Lord, who will get their comeuppance for what they have done. And it awaits the godless after they die. Really?

So let's turn our attention to justice. In a world which can seem so unfair, how does the justice of God operate? How does it affect Christians? Can we reflect God's justice in church? How does this inform how Christians apply that justice to human society? How should courts operate? Is there too much mercy (short sentences and comfortable prisons)? What is the justice system for - to punish, rehabilitate or protect the public?

We gather to think, explore and wrestle with our faith. Come along to listen or join in the conversation.
