Sunday 17th October

10:30am Hybrid Communion Worship service at the Community Hall

Last Saturday was the Leadership Awayday. So what did we do? First, we made our way up to David and Tricia's home in Bridford. What a beautiful place for the day. This was the first time we have been able to have an awayday for quite some time so it was good just to be together in a more relaxed environment without an agenda driving us along.

We spent the morning sharing with each other and praying for everyone, one at a time. How good it was to be able to support each other in this way. Then after lunch we had to forgo our walk as it was very wet out. Instead, we pressed on with seeking the Lord about KCBC and what direction to take. We took stock of where we are as a fellowship, recognising that many are pretty tired out so that leaping forward into a packed programme is not wise thing to do. But we did look at possibilities, in the way we worship together on Sunday and in our mission. As we have not been able to keep up with our community involvement, we looked at how new things might develop, how mission can be about being involved in other people's lives and activities and in the process making our faith real and open. So what does the Lord have for us? Things we have the energy for, things that bring Jesus to Kingsteignton. We seek the Lord.

David

Rev David Goddard

Dear Congregation,

We were amazed at the large donation of harvest festival groceries together with some money that you delivered recently - we are so grateful for your continuing support.

With many thanks.

Yours sincerely

Hazel Harrison (Secretary)
On behalf of THAT

Thank you from the Millards! We felt very welcomed and loved at the service on Sunday. As we emerge from lockdowns and shielding, and as I start this new stage of my ministry and training with you at KCBC, there is much to reflect on and lots to look forward to. I'm excited to journey with you, to find out what God has in store for us all and to work with God wherever he is moving.

My email is rose@kcbchurch.org.uk and I would love to hear from you; ideas, thoughts, worries, invitations for a cup of tea, organising visits to Home Bargains..... Rose

Getting going again

As we look to get the church functioning again, there are many ways you can get involved. Here are some to consider.

- Help operate the PA. Not over-taxing as our young people have shown over the Summer. Full training is provided.
- Operating the laptop and projector. Young people have shown the way again over the Summer. It is not too complicated but a vital part of what we offer in the service.
- Setting up the hall. Chairs, tables, bits and pieces of PA all need getting out those cupboards and putting in the right place. Come down at 9:00 to lend a hand.
- Welcoming. Each week 2 people need to be on the doors from 10:00 to welcome everyone, hand things out and be around should help be needed in the service.
- Help with Eagles and Owls on a rota basis.
- Serving refreshments. As we start this up again, eventually we need a team to sustain it.
- KILTS and Messy Church. We need a new set of people for each as our teams have been depleted over lockdown.

A full instructions are provided for each team.

If you are able to help please let David or a member of the leadership team know you really will be an answer to prayer.... Thank you

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

Thank you to June for the following

A poem by Marian Cleworth.

*God's timing is perfect, so do not despair
If you're keenly awaiting an answer to prayer,
Just keep on believing - one day you will see
A pattern emerging where none used to be.*

*It may take some time, for although we may feel
Our needs to be urgent, our fears to be real,
God knows what He's doing, He's in full control,
But we see a fraction while He sees the whole.*

*Although you may worry and question His will,
He hasn't forgotten, He's waiting until
The threads can be woven to work for your good,
Shaping your destiny just as they should.*

*So if you've a problem be patient...and wait,
His answer will not come too early or late,
Take heart and keep trusting, for He understands...
God's timing is perfect - your life's in His hands.*
