

This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.

From the minister...

Hosanna!

Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Luke 19:28-44

When was the last time you had the chance to shout out loud? There are some places where that is actively encouraged; sporting events, music concerts, the House of Commons. There is something powerful about lots of people shouting, or singing, the same thing at the same time. The sense of community or togetherness is binding. It's a great way to feel part of something bigger than ourselves. It's also a great way to share that sense of belonging. How often do we shout like the disciples on Palm Sunday? Do we let our love for Jesus bubble up, flowing out of us because it cannot be contained? On Palm Sunday, Jesus said it was such a joyous and powerful day that even the stones would cry out in praise, adoration and relief. If the stones would cry out, how much more should our beating hearts want to?

When was the last time you had a good cry? It might be a Covid thing but I can cry at a poignant advert at the moment, let alone the news. John's gospel tells us Jesus wept at the grave of his dear friend, Lazarus and Luke tells us Jesus wept as he looked at Jerusalem. He knew what was coming; for himself soon and for the people of Jerusalem in the future, because they did not realise he was their king and their saviour. Even the stones knew to be happy because Jesus was with them. This week, I want to think about how much we have to be happy about and grateful for and really take stock of where we are with Jesus, our King and our Saviour, so here are a couple of things to be wondering about.

I wonder how well I really know Jesus

I wonder what difference knowing Jesus could or should make to the way I live my life.

Prayer for Ukraine –A Prayer for Peace

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children,
at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen

Archbishop Justin Welby
Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

Here is some more information about one of the ways we can help the people of Ukraine.

Last week Richard shared a video by his sister about the work of CHOPS (if you missed it you can see it here <https://www.kcbchurch.org.uk/virtual-service/2022-04-03/11.30>)

Here is how you can help:

Sorry for being a bit slow to get the details out for people at KCBC to donate financially to the work of CHOPS in Kalisz.

CHOPS is an established charitable arm of my sister Helen's church in Kalisz, Poland. CHOPS is run by Roman, one of the pastors.

To support their current work with the large number of Ukrainian refugees seeking safety and accommodation in Kalisz, you can make an international payment via SWIFT. There will be a fee of between £10 and £35 per transaction. Please feel free to donate directly in this way, or if you'd prefer to avoid the transaction fee, make the payment to my UK bank account and then I'll arrange a single payment to CHOPS, so just one transaction fee for all of us together (which I'll happily cover).

To make a direct SWIFT payment to CHOPS in Kalisz, the international bank account number is: PL11 1140 2004 0000 3012 1506 9404 There will be a fee of between £10 and £35 for this transaction.

To make a payment to me, which I will include in a single donation to CHOPS, my bank sort code is 08-92-86 and the account number is 10242502 - account name is 'Mrs Cheryl & Mr Richard Adams'. There will be no fee for this payment.

If you're prefer to pay cash or cheque, just let me know.

I'll aim to make the SWIFT payment on Monday 11th April if people choose to transfer their donations via my account.

Sorry this is a bit complicated, but I just want to ensure that we can make an efficient donation!

I'll keep you posted with updates from my sister.

Many thanks,

Richard.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others.

Sarah

Bill and Susanna have shared the following:

Here the song. I think it speaks for itself so strongly and clearly.

When it comes on in the car we always turn the volume to full and sing our heads off with it. The car bounces! So do we with the joy, wonder and excitement of this most glorious, amazing truth. Jesus is alive. Our lives, and the world itself, will never be the same again. God's answer to every problem in the cosmos is given in this song.

Blessings,

Bill and Susanna.

Artist: NewSongAlbum: People Get ReadyReleased: 2002Video by: We Are Christians

For those without access to the internet here are the words

*Not a word was heard
At the tomb that day
Just shuffling of soldiers feet
As they guarded the grave
One day, two days
Three days had past
Could it be that Jesus
Breathed His last?*

*Could it be that His Father
Had forsaken him?
Turned his back on his son
Dispising our sin*

*All hell seemed to whisper
"Just forget Him, He's dead"
Then the Father looked down
To his son and he said*

*Arise, My love
Arise, My love
The grave no longer
Has a hold on you
No more death's sting
No more suffering
Arise... Arise... my love*

*The Earth trembled
And the tomb began to shake
And like lightning
From Heaven the stone was rolled away
And as dead man the guards
Stood there in fright
As the power of love
Displayed its might*

*Then suddenly a melody
Filled the air
Riding wings of wind
It was everywhere
The words all creation
Had been longing to hear
The sweet sound of victory
So loud and clear*

*Arise, my love
Arise, my love
The grave no longer has a hold on you
No more death's sting*

*No more suffering
Arise... arise...*

*Sin, where are your shackles?
Death, where is your sting?
Hell, has been defeated
The grave could not hold the king*

*Arise, My love
Arise, My love
The grave no longer
Has a hold on you
No more death's sting
No more suffering
Arise... Arise... Arise*

CAP Money Training

CAP Money is a three-part course covering how to manage money and so keep away from debt problems. We are exploring the opportunity to run CAP money courses locally. To help prepare, we need a few people trained up to help out run the course. If you would like to train as a CAP Money coach, online interactive training on Saturday 30 April or 21 May 09:15am - 12:45pm. KCBC will cover the fee. Please see David if you are interested. (Someone indicated interest last Sunday but I didn't make a note of who it was – so please remind me!)

A Message from Rose

Loneliness will affect us all at some point in our lives. We probably all recognise that feeling of isolation from others -sometimes when we are standing in a crowded room. It's all about the quality of connection we share with other people and the pandemic has really shown up those of us who feel lonely, unheard or disregarded in some way. None of us are immune to needing human interaction but if we know who we are in Christ and we know the power of God's love and Spirit walking beside us it can really help with feelings of loneliness. It also makes us the ideal people to think about walking alongside those who are struggling with feelings of loneliness.

You may remember that I mentioned at a Members' Meeting a few weeks ago that I was exploring the possibility of starting a befriending or listening service for people in Kingsteignton. I am still exploring and am now at the stage when it would be great to know how many people would you be interested in being involved. No commitment at this time, just an indication of whether you would like to know more.

Please email me on rose@kcbchurch.org.uk.

And please, don't discount yourself if you have been or even are lonely. Christina did a beautiful retelling of the woman washing Jesus' feet with her tears and perfume on Sunday for Owls and I was reminded that those who have been forgiven much, love much. Those who have experienced pain and felt supported are often those most capable of giving that support back.

Christian Response to Easter Europe (cr2ee)

Known by Sarah Oddy for many years, they been meeting the Ukrainian refugees at the border, providing them with food and finding them somewhere safe to stay.

They ask for:

- ▶ Funds to send the items to Moldova. Each lorry costs around £4,000. The latest one left on Monday 4th April fully laden. We have also been sending funds direct to our colleagues in Moldova to enable them to buy items immediately whilst waiting for the lorry to arrive.
- ▶ Very good clothing and bedding (duvets, blankets, sheets, duvet covers, sleeping bags - not second-hand pillows), food - non-perishable and must be in date by at least 6 months, (tinned food, pasta, rice etc.), over the counter medicines, toiletries (not bubble bath as most do not have baths), sanitary towels, nappies, and incontinence pads.
- ▶ Help in collecting items from people. The lorry departs from Exmouth.
