

He is the one we proclaim, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ.

Colossians 1 verse 28

Sunday 12th September 2021

10:30 am Worship Service

This will be a hybrid time of live and Zoom.

Our Sunday groups for young people, Eagles and Owls, start today.

Michael Trigg is preaching at Ide Congregational Church this morning

Live at the hall. For those at the hall, there will be opportunity for and (socially distanced) socialising. Refreshments served at the end of service.

Live on Zoom will be open from 10:00 a.m. Afterwards we will, as last week, have the option of joining others in chat rooms of about 4-5.

If you know of anyone outside of KCBC who joins us, please let them know about the recording or alternatively invite them by passing on the Zoom details. If you need help, please contact one of the tech team, who will be delighted to assist you - David B, Darren, Jack, Phil, Nick, Richard

Notes for your diary

- Friday Outing - 24th September. 10:30am We will be meeting at Forde Park, weather permitting. Bring your own refreshments or get some from the Pavilion Café. If possible, bring something to sit on. Contact Christina or Sue W for more information.
- Quiz – The next quiz hosted by Graham is on Saturday 25th September so invite friends and family and don't forget you can now meet in groups to make up teams. Graham has kindly agreed to continue to host Quizzes via zoom as long as we have enough interest

Special Church Members' Meeting

Members, please make a note. It will be on Zoom and details have been sent round by email. The agenda and notes about the meeting have been circulated and every member should have that either by email or paper copy. On the night, you may bring questions, or make points. We will listen to each other and to the Spirit guiding us. We meet to discern the Lord's will, so let us seek the Lord together.

KILTS and Messy Church

I do enjoy rummaging around the loft and looking into boxes that I haven't touched for years. Inside there can be all sorts of things I forgot I'd kept (and am glad I did so) and a few things I may have forgotten what they are for. I've never found anything worthy of going on the Antiques Roadshow but a few years ago my parents did find my grandfather's WW1 medals in the loft after a 50 year absence.

Rummaging around the KILTS and Messy Church stuff is proving to be similar. We've forgotten what we've got, what half the things are for and as for setting up, well, that will tax us. But we are starting again – KILTS this Tuesday and Messy Church on September 25th. And you know we'd welcome your help because without renewed teams we will grind to a halt.

Please pray for KILTS and Messy Church. We will be almost starting from scratch with our contacts with families and will be working at building up relationships in the community, sharing in their life journeys and letting them share in ours. Through that, the Good News of Jesus comes alive and the compassion of the Lord can be shown.

David

The Testimony Service

Sunday 19th will be a Testimony Service. It is a time when we share our stories. It can be...

- A Bible reading that has been significant to us.
- Something that the Lord has done that you would like to share.
- The story of how you became a Christian.
- A story of a significant event in your Christian life from years past.
- Something that you have learned of the Lord over the lockdown period.

Don't feel limited by the list. This is our time together to share the Lord. You may pre-record, be on Zoom or live at the hall. To help plan, please let David know you want to contribute so he can schedule you in. If no one wants to contribute anything, David will play the violin for you. He has never played the violin before so let's hope lots of people can think of something.

Getting going again

As we look to get the church functioning again, there are many ways you can get involved. Here are some to consider.

- Help operate the PA. Not over-taxing as our young people have shown over the Summer. Full training is provided.
- Operating the laptop and projector. Young people have shown the way again over the Summer. It is not too complicated but a vital part of what we offer in the service.
- Setting up the hall. Chairs, tables, bits and pieces of PA all need getting out those cupboards and putting in the right place. Come down at 9:00 to lend a hand.
- Welcoming. Each week 2 people need to be on the doors from 10:00 to welcome everyone, hand things out and be around should help be needed in the service.
- Help with Eagles and Owls on a rota basis.
- Serving refreshments. As we start this up again, eventually we need a team to sustain it.
- KILTS and Messy Church. We need a new set of people for each as our teams have been depleted over lockdown. KILTS resumes again on the 14th September.

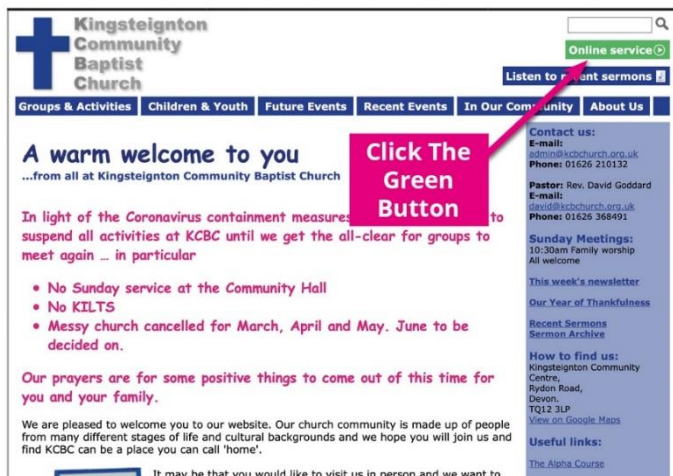

A full instructions are provided for each team.

If you are able to help please let David or a member of the leadership team know you really will be an answer to prayer.... Thank you

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

'How to join the Sunday Service via Zoom'.
