Encouragement

Our verse for the year at Church Meetings is... "Take up the shield of faith with which you can extinguish the flaming arrows of the evil one. Ephesians 6: 16. We reminded ourselves on Tuesday evening of how our trust in Christ as the Way keeps us safe from harm and deception. We were encouraged on Tuesday to hear about the work of our Sunday Clubs- Owls and Robins. Both groups have a good number of young people and we recognised how welcoming and accommodating they are of new and visiting children. Our very young children and babies who stay in church are a group who are growing, and we value their place in the life of the church. Thanks to all those who help make this such a great ministry for the children.

David Butler reported on the finances for the half year and we give thanks to the Lord for His ongoing provision for us.

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing ” 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Wan-a-piece of me from God’s Front Door Step by Jill Briscoe

Do you ever wonder what the Father thinks of you? Does he think you are a cute kid even when you are naughty?

I was sitting on The Front Door steps talking to him about our visit to Texas.

“Our grandkids are growing up so fast.”

“It happens.”

“Liam is so cute,” I gushed. “Even he’s naughty. I could eat him up, as they say in England!” He laughed.

“They don’t have that saying in Texas,” I went on (as if he did not know),

“They say, “I wan-a-piece of you!”

“Same thing,” He smiled.

.....“I don’t wan-a-piece of you,” He sad after a bit.

“You don’t? I asked, my heart beginning to beat.

“No, I want ALL of you.” He said quietly.

“Oh”

After another short interlude, I said, “Lord I think you have all of me.”

“Yes, I do” He said.

“You are amazing,” I said. “And I’m not even cute, in fact I’m not very nice at all!”

Then because he waited, I was able to say – right to His face, “Lord, Thank you for wanting my everything, even when I am a downright unpleasant kid; not a nice child at all. You are the best!”

Maybe you feel the same way as I did – such love! Why don’t you thank him too?

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement that you would like to share?

If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other. Thanks. Sarah

Word Alive

Our topic will be pacifism and warfare. Was Jesus a pacifist? Did he promote passive resistance? Can Christians legitimate any war, and is it ever right that we take lives in the context of warfare. As warfare now is less restricted to battles between armies, the taking of lives includes 'collateral' damage where civilians are killed while not being the primary target.

Bring along your views, difficulties and some Bible passages if you can. A very contemporary ethical problem where you may have to decide whether to side with the morals of Blair or Corbin.
