

To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

From David...

I was told in my early days of becoming a Christian that you learn your most in the hard times. That had a sort of appeal, like a Christian version conquering a commando course – in that time you discover yourself and ‘become a man’ or something like that.

Within 6 months of coming to faith, I was on that commando course for Christians. I left school and moved to Bristol to start my engineering apprenticeship. I had no idea going into that how fragile I am when away from home, away from everyone I had ever known. By fragile, I mean freaked out every single week. The Christian test? How can I follow Jesus when I feel but dread inside and I have no Christian support next to me.

I made sure every evening I spent time in the Bible and prayed especially before bed if I managed to resist nodding off. (I discovered praying on the bus on the way to the factory was better). I had to give particular attention to doing the right thing at work in the rather bawdy shop floor environment and be prepared to own up to being a Christian. Nothing glamorous, just pressing on with Christ’s commando course.

Much as I hated that time, I know I couldn't have grown in faith as I did then. If I bailed out, as I once tried to do, I think I may have become a 'nice' Christian but with shallow roots and rather fragile during tougher times in life. So if you are finding things difficult at the moment maybe as a result of being cut off, take courage. You may not feel you are reaching the heights of spiritual experience but you can put down deep roots in Christ as you persevere in tough time. And a joyful, fulfilling Christian life will follow.

This month KCBC, with your help, will be donating to THAT Foodbank, which will be happy to receive any in-date donations you wish to make. There is, however, a particular need for:

Sugar

Tinned Custard

Tinned Rice Pudding

Instant Mashed Potato

Porridge Oats

David & Claire are happy to use their home as a drop-off point once again. The delivery of KCBC's donation will be on 1st February, so could all donations get to them by Saturday 30th January.

Thank you for helping to support our local community.

"Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected.

Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following?

Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh.

If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share.

HOME MISSION STAMPS

Please save all your stamps and encourage family and friends to do so

Stamps should have a 12mm or 1/2 inch border.

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

'How to join the Sunday Service'

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing
