Get In the Picture

Richard has led us for a number of years now but is unavailable this year. If we are to go ahead even for one night, then as well as our many helpers we need the following:

- * Someone to lead, which involves letting people know what needs doing and making sure we have people to bring all we need on the night.
- * A photographer.

If you are willing to help or want to ask more about what is involved, please let Richard or David know by Wednesday at the latest.

Leaflets for your shoeboxes will be available shortly.

The boxes filled with gifts are sent to children who live in extreme poverty often in orphanages.

Many are victims of war or come from families where parents are too ill or too poor to take care of them.

A shoebox with simple things like a toothbrush, toothpaste, a ball, pencils and notebook, a woolly hat etc. mean so much to children who otherwise would receive no gifts at Christmas. If you are not able to fill a whole shoebox, please put any items you can give into the spare box on the display table. These will be used to make up shoeboxes.

Please bring your filled shoeboxes on Sunday 8th November.

Thank you for your support. Tricia Butler

Church Meeting report

Here are a few things that happened at this week's church members' meeting:

The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me,

because the LORD has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.

He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted,

to proclaim freedom for the captives

and release from darkness for the prisoners, Isaiah 61:1

- Isaiah 61:1 is our verse for the year and reflects what the Lord has called us to in ministering to all we come into contact with as a church.
- We looked at some of our goals for the coming year, acknowledging that we need to be prayerful in committing all our plans to the Lord.
- A number of church activities gave reports - Coombeswood, KILTS, Friday Craft, Sunday children's work and schools' work.
- We thanked Darren (in his illness provoked absence) for all his work over the last 6 years on the leadership team. He is now on a year's sabbatical from leadership.
- We heard plans for the church Awayday. Listen out for announcements - it sounds great.

At the last meeting we had a worship survey. The responses were interesting and showed a great diversity among us, though generally an appreciation of all aspects of our worship expression. It is enriching and healthy to have such diversity.

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing ”

1 Thessalonians 5:11

It is great to hear how God has been encouraging his people. Throughout Scripture we see instructions to encourage one another and verses that are meant to encourage us.

The following was passed to me by Barbara

Grant that a little dog;

Father God, if I should gain grace

To see Thee face to face when life is ended,

Grant that a little dog;

Who once believed that I was God,

Should see me face to face.

(author unknown but from South Africa)

It would be great if YOU could forward bible verses, poems, passages, songs etc. that have been of encouragement, I can then include them in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other...thank you

Sarah
