Just a thought.....from Val Hyde

No spirituality is of much value without the struggle of soul that is demanded to make it real. In our honest moments, we must confess that faith, like life, is difficult.Most of us who seriously attempt to live our lives in relation to God and in partnership with God can testify that faith calls for the deepest commitment we can muster.... Hannah took hold of faith and made her request earnestly to God. It was all she had and she put herself into the fragile faith position where faith and faith alone could make the difference. The inspiration of Hannah is ours to savor and love. It's also ours to emulate as we seek to follow God, filling in the gaps of what we know with the substance of faith – and so we do.

Keith Herron, senior pastor of Holmeswood Baptist Church in Kansas City

As I read the above, it seemed to follow on from David's 'Word alive' on Sunday evening & our worship on Sunday morning

Love from Val

Befriending at Coombeswood Residential Home

Would you like to befriend residents at the home? Some of those we see at our services might appreciate a visit whilst there are others at the home who have few, if any, visitors. And for some, having someone to simply read to them would be of great therapeutic benefit.

If you are interested in being a befriender or would like to know more, please see Anja or David.

It is not too late to sponsor Val Hyde she started an 8 week slim on Wednesday 23rd April to raise money for Christians Against Poverty (CAP) in Kingsteignton. An official weigh-in will take place each week and the total weight loss will be recorded in the Newsletter on Sunday 22nd June. Val's aim is to lose 20 lbs
