

If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind.

Philippians 2verse 1, 2

Sunday 19th September 2021

10:30 am Hybrid Worship service at the Community Hall – with time for personal stories and testimonies.
Our Sunday groups for young people, Eagles and Owls will be running today

Michael Trigg is preaching at Ide Congregational Church this morning

Live at the hall. For those at the hall, there will be opportunity for and (socially distanced) socialising. Refreshments served at the end of service.

Live on Zoom will be open from 10:00 a.m. Afterwards we will, as last week, have the option of joining others in chat rooms of about 4-5.

If you know of anyone outside of KCBC who joins us, please let them know about the recording or alternatively invite them by passing on the Zoom details. If you need help, please contact one of the tech team, who will be delighted to assist you - David B, Darren, Jack, Phil, Nick, Richard

From David

On Tuesday at the Special Church Meeting, we unanimously agreed to call Rose Millard to be a Minister-in-Training at KCBC. And for that we thank the Lord! God is good and at the meeting there was that sense that we are being blessed to be having Rose among us, and to be a part of her formation (that's the technical term) as a Baptist Minister. Welcome, Rose, to KCBC.

What does that mean in practice? Explaining that in detail is rather like trying to describe what it is like to dive off a high board to someone who can't even swim. It is a leap of faith! But not a blind one. We discern that the Lord has provided us all with this opportunity and so God will show us, as we take the leap, where we should go.

Our first task is to welcome Rose and, when we meet him, her husband Jon. Then we get to know her and tell her our stories of faith. Rose will have her work cut out getting to know us all, remember our names and who is related to who. So complicated. And, with our help, she will be getting to know our wider community. That's enough to begin with and Rose will be doing this alongside her college studies and parental duties.

We will be holding an act of commissioning during one of our Sunday services, and that gives us the opportunity of praying for Rose together. And during her time with us, we will be able to support Rose at all times in prayer.

So, ready for the leap. One, two, three...

David

Getting going again

As we look to get the church functioning again, there are many ways you can get involved. Here are some to consider.

- Help operate the PA. Not over-taxing as our young people have shown over the Summer. Full training is provided.
- Operating the laptop and projector. Young people have shown the way again over the Summer. It is not too complicated but a vital part of what we offer in the service.
- Setting up the hall. Chairs, tables, bits and pieces of PA all need getting out those cupboards and putting in the right place. Come down at 9:00 to lend a hand.

- Welcoming. Each week 2 people need to be on the doors from 10:00 to welcome everyone, hand things out and be around should help be needed in the service.
- Help with Eagles and Owls on a rota basis.
- Serving refreshments. As we start this up again, eventually we need a team to sustain it.
- KILTS and Messy Church. We need a new set of people for each as our teams have been depleted over lockdown. KILTS resumes again on the 14th September.

A full instructions are provided for each team.

If you are able to help please let David or a member of the leadership team know you really will be an answer to prayer.... Thank you

Our Harvest collection at KCBC is on 3rd October, with your help, will be donating to THAT Foodbank

There is a particular need for:

Cereal Instant Mashed Potato

Coffee Tea

Sugar Porridge Oats

Tinned Tomatoes

They DO NOT need Pasta, Baked Beans, Tinned Soup at the moment.

Although the above items are urgently needed, the foodbank is happy to receive whatever can be donated. Please ensure all items are within date, as they are unable to use anything which is past the sell-by date.

For information, if you would like to know more, or want to get involved with the foodbank in any capacity their website is www.thatfoodbank.com

Thank you all for your generosity to those in need in our community.

Dear Friends at KCBC

We are hoping to be able to hold a Harvest Lunch after the service on October the 3rd.

In order to make it as Covid-safe as possible, we plan to serve the meal to you already on its plate, which will be either pre-washed or disposable, as will be the cutlery and anything else that we use.

So that we can plan effectively, please can you let Helen know a.s.a.p. if you would like to come. For those who are attending church physically at the moment, there will be a form available on Sunday mornings for you to add your name to, otherwise please can you let Helen know how many adults, how many children in your party would like to come, and any special dietary requirements e.g. vegetarian, Gluten free, no dairy etc.

We will also be looking for two swift and willing volunteers to help serve the food!

We are really looking forward to eating together again as a fellowship, and to celebrate God's provision. We hope that you will be able to come.

Every blessing to you all.

Nat & Helen Bond

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

The screenshot shows the homepage of Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church. At the top left is the church logo, a blue cross with the text 'Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church'. To the right is a search bar and a green button labeled 'Online service' with a right-pointing arrow. Below the logo is a navigation menu with links: 'Groups & Activities', 'Children & Youth', 'Future Events', 'Recent Events', 'In Our Community', and 'About Us'. The main content area features a pink box with the text 'Click The Green Button' and an arrow pointing to the 'Online service' button. Below this, there is a welcome message and a notice about COVID-19: 'In light of the Coronavirus containment measures, we have decided to suspend all activities at KCBC until we get the all-clear for groups to meet again ... in particular'. A list of bullet points follows: 'No Sunday service at the Community Hall', 'No KILTS', and 'Messy church cancelled for March, April and May. June to be decided on.' To the right of the main content is a sidebar with contact information, including email addresses and phone numbers, and links to 'Recent Sermons' and 'Sermon Archive'.

'How to join the Sunday Service via Zoom'.

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing
