Just a thought...

“For we live by faith, not by sight.” 2 Corinthians 5:7

Going out in faith is not the same as being a “chancer”.

Living by faith is not the same as living by bright ideas.

Ask Abraham. He discovered as he went on his pilgrimage of faith how big God was. George Philip

If you have a thought you would like to share please pass it on to Sarah.

The Soldier's and Airman's Scripture Readers Association (SASRA) visited us two years ago to inform us about their work and update us about Christian ministry among our armed services. We are pleased to have them back at KCBC. They will be with us on Monday 3rd March at 7:30 in the Mary Hall Suite.

SASRA work among Armed Services personnel, building friendships to support people in their Christian lives, or to come to faith. Themselves ex-service men or women, SASRA workers have first-hand experience of the environment in which they work and so can relate to those currently serving.

There will be a retiring offering for the work of SASRA

Set My People Free – Saturday 15th March

We are having a day together in the beautiful setting of Heatree House to look at how we might lay aside the things that commonly hold us back in our Christian life and seek the Lord in a deeper way.

We will be led by Rev. Paul Springate and his wife, Bryony, both experienced in leading Christian conferences.

As well as opportunity to be together and appreciate the setting at Heatree House, there will be opportunities for prayer.

Arrive from 9:30 am. for a 10:00 start. Finish by 5p.m.

£15 per person to cover food. An offering box will be available for donations to cover hire of the hall and a gift to the speakers.

If you require more information please see David or take a leaflet and in the meantime pray for the event and all those involved in any way.
