I have been asked to read as representative of KCBC and would value your prayers, do come along and join us.

From the minister...

Time together is what many missed most in lockdown and it will take some time before we either restore or gain that connection with each other. So we need time together.

Sunday morning is a great time to be together and we get plenty of opportunity to talk while we take refreshments. Because we are still having to be a bit careful about Covid, it is not quite such a free and easy time as it was and I know I have found I am not getting round to talking to quite as many as I used to. Maybe you have found that too and would appreciate more opportunity.

To help us simply spend time together, the Social Events Group are planning a few things to help us with that. The first is a trip to Dawlish Warren (see above for details). We will have no particular things to achieve, no targets, no time limit, no time to clear up. You can go for a walk with others over the sand dunes and nature reserve, you can go to the café area to sit and chat. Or both. You can even play a round of golf, birdwatch or play arcade games, whatever helps you spend time with others. It is time together.

You may want to run your own event some time. Please do.

So put the date in you diary and, weather permitting, it will be a great day. And let me know if you need a lift. Dawlish, here we come!

David

Have you ever wondered what your minister in training does when she is not with you?

The Secret Diary of Rose aged 113 $\frac{3}{4}$ Tuesdays

That is roughly how old I feel at 5am when I get up on a Tuesday but once I'm up and on the road with the Today programme, it's all fine. The college day starts at 8.30 with Chapel prayers and we take it in turns to lead as the college Bible reading plan takes us through the year.

This term I am auditing a course run by Helen Paynter on Issues in Biblical Theology so we are teasing out the key themes and threads running through the whole Bible; looking for the intertextuality in ideas such as creation and decreation for instance. Did that sound like I know what I am talking about? Excellent.

By 11 I am back in the common room with a cup of tea and hearing about everyone else's tricky members' meetings and awful deacons. I heave a sigh of relief that I am at KCBC.

I head to the library to get the pre-reading done for ~~this afternoon~~ next week. The pre-reading is optional (ish) but always helpful to understand what is happening in the lecture itself.

Lunch is a great time of fellowship and usually really good food. My tutor group is on washing up duty. It's a joy to serve.

After lunch is a lecture on Developing Worship and Ministry. There's only three of us in this group so nowhere to hide! We've been talking about baptism, the Lord's Supper and services amongst other things; how they work, the belief behind them, the theology, why we do it.

I have an hour before Greek so my colleague Tim and I have some chocolate from the tuck shop and a fortifying cup of tea while we check each other's homework and wonder how we ended up being the only two second years doing it. Greek is actually quite fun and definitely more fun than Hebrew. We finally stagger out at 6pm and I head back down the motorway to my friend's house in Highbridge to avoid going all the way back to Honiton. She and her housemate cook me dinner and we watch Bake Off. Even after the series has finished.

It's a long day but a good day.

Rose

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

Laura shared the following song on our homegroup Whatsapp group found it encouraging so thought it would be good to share...

God will make a way
Where there seems to be no way
He works in ways we cannot see
He will make a way for me

He will be my guide
Hold me closely to His side
With love and strength for each new day
He will make a way, He will make a way

Oh, God will make a way
Where there seems to be no way
He works in ways we cannot see
He will make a way for me

He will be my guide
Hold me closely to His side
With love and strength for each new day
He will make a way, He will make a way

By a roadway in the wilderness, He'll lead me,
Rivers in the desert will I see
Heaven and earth will fade but His Word will still remain
And He will do something new today

Oh, God will make a way
Where there seems to be no way
He works in ways we cannot see
He will make a way for me

He will be my guide
Hold me closely to His side
With love and strength for each new day
He will make a way, He will make a way

Give thanks to the Lord for He is good, His love endures forever
Psalm: 118

We held our church members' AGM on 25th January at which I reported about the church finances. Looking back to 2021 we saw that over the year our expenditure was only just over budget, but was still about £3800 higher than our income. Looking forward, I am pleased to report we have had a substantial donation, which has enabled us to appoint Rose Millard as Minister-in-Training for 2 years, to fund our outward facing work with KILTS and Messy Church, and to cover the 2021 deficit. We have set the 2022 budget to cover the normal day-to-day running costs of the church plus this extra expenditure that will be funded by the donation. Although this puts us on a much firmer financial footing, our costs continue to rise and if you haven't done so recently, now would be a good time to review your giving to the church.

Our pattern of giving changed during 2020 and 2021 with more of us giving directly by monthly bank standing order. Please let me know if you would like to give in this way and I will send you all the details. We also still have a weekly offering of cash or cheque, and the offering box can be found on the table towards the front left of the hall as viewed from the door coming in. You can put your gift in it at any time. The money we give in this way has the extra benefit of generating Gift Aid for us at a rate of 25p for every £1 given. This and the Gift Aid from the direct giving is a significant source of our overall income.

The last two years have been challenging for us financially, but we continue to thank God for his provision during this period and for enabling and resourcing us to reach out to the community around us with the good news of Jesus Christ.

CAN YOU HELP?

For my work with CAP, a mobile phone is an essential piece of technology which I use on a daily basis to communicate with clients, CAP head office, referral agencies and many others! I'm currently using an old phone which is temperamental and unreliable. I would be grateful if you could please consider helping towards the cost of a new phone (refurbished)?

If you can help, please mark donations as 'CAP Phone Fund' and give it to the CAP Teignbridge Treasurer, which is Michael Trigg or David Goddard
 Thank you. (From Tim Wigley - New Debt Centre Manager for Christians Against Poverty in Teignbridge)
