Sunday 27th June

10:30am Worship service at the Community Hall
– please remember that you need to book your place with Sue

From David

As we expected, we will have to extend our current arrangements for a minimum of 4 weeks. This puts our earliest time of meeting without restrictions as July 25th. A few other things...

- We thank all those who work with our young people for starting Owls and Eagles last week. This is great for our young people and also frees up many places in the hall. So book now as there are many more places available, though the earlier you book up in the week, the easier it is for Sue to plan.
- If you need your children to be in the hall with you, book them in with Sue. If not, take them outside to their groups meeting on the grass.
- You don't need to worry about taking someone else's place in the hall. We need to see you, and you need to get back to meeting in person. At worse, we will be sharing places which works for us all. So look to getting back as soon as you are ready.

- As we are restricted for numbers, we are finding clearing up a strain. If you are willing and able, please stay behind to help put things away to spread the load. We don't have to move the chairs, though.
- The extension is going to stretch us again, so keep praying for the church.

We need a helpers

To enable to hybrid services (hall and Zoom) to continue, we need your help.

Could you...

- Be part of the Tech. team, we need extra volunteers to help with the PA and production of the Zoom service (full training will be provided).
- Help with Eagles and Owls?

A full set of clear instructions are provided for each team.

If you are able to help please let David or a member of the leadership team know you really will be an answer to prayer.... Thank you

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

Zoom Coffee Mornings

We are winding up the Zoom Coffee Mornings for the moment, since we are now free to meet "in the flesh." We had a really enjoyable walk this week, followed by real coffee and real cake in the sun afterwards! We hope that those of you who have taken part in the online Coffee Mornings have enjoyed them and will continue to meet up with each other now that they have finished. Don't fret - we'll start them up again if there's another Lockdown!

Helen.

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

'How to join the Sunday Service via Zoom'.

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing

The screenshot shows the website for Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church. At the top left is the church logo, a blue cross. To its right is the text 'Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church'. In the top right corner, there is a search bar and a green button labeled 'Online service' with a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar is a blue navigation menu with links: 'Groups & Activities', 'Children & Youth', 'Future Events', 'Recent Events', 'In Our Community', and 'About Us'. The main content area features a large heading 'A warm welcome to you' followed by a sub-heading '...from all at Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church'. Below this is a paragraph about COVID-19 measures: 'In light of the Coronavirus containment measures, we have decided to suspend all activities at KCBC until we get the all-clear for groups to meet again ... in particular'. This is followed by a bulleted list:

- No Sunday service at the Community Hall
- No KILTS
- Messy church cancelled for March, April and May. June to be decided on.

 Below the list is another paragraph: 'Our prayers are for some positive things to come out of this time for you and your family.' At the bottom left, there is a small paragraph: 'We are pleased to welcome you to our website. Our church community is made up of people from many different stages of life and cultural backgrounds and we hope you will join us and find KCBC can be a place you can call 'home''. At the bottom right, there is a 'Contact us' section with email and phone numbers, a 'Pastor' section, 'Sunday Meetings' information, and 'Useful links' including 'The Alpha Course'. A pink box with the text 'Click The Green Button' is overlaid on the page, with a red arrow pointing from the box to the 'Online service' button.
