7:30-8:30pm Prayer together

30 Slanns Meadow is open for prayer, our focus will be to intercede for those who are going through difficult times and for those known to us who don't have a faith in Jesus. We offer laying on of hands for healing for those who request it.

Prayer is available after the service from our Prayer Ministry Team at the front of the church, if you would prefer a quieter room please ask one of the team.

Prayer chain Nat Bond 01626 366668 email: bond.nat@btinternet.com

If you are not on the chain at the moment and would like involved please talk to Nat.

For those who use a hearing aid, a hearing loop is provided in the main hall. To use: switch to the 'T' position.

If you are visiting we are pleased to have you with us, please take time to write in the visitor's book and stay for tea or coffee after the service.

Please remember our diary for the next week in your daily prayers

Sunday 2nd December

10:30am Communion Worship Service

As part of Our Year Of Thankfulness, you are invited to bring along for display something that represents anything for which you have given thanks to the Lord for recently. It can either be an object (you work out the connection!) or a picture (printed or projected). If you want a picture projected, either email it to David G before Saturday or bring it on a memory stick before the service. You do not have to say anything about your object/picture of choice but there will be a time in the service where you can speak about it.

Let us share the good things God our Provider has given for us to enjoy.

6:30pm Advent worship service by candlelight at St.Michael's Church. We are all invited to join with the other Kingsteignton churches to celebrate the start of the Advent season. Come along for a change from our usual format of worship where they really do know how to use candles properly. Your own minister has a habit of lighting the wrong candle! (David's words not mine!)

Make a note in your diary

📖 WOWW. = "Women of Worship and the Word". On the third Thursday of each month there is a ladies meeting at Bovey Tracey Baptist Church to which all ladies are invited. It starts at 10.15 with coffee, and finishes at 12.30. The meeting includes worship, prayer and Bible teaching. Margaret Colley thoroughly recommends it! The next meeting is 6th December (earlier in the month because of Christmas)

📖 Annual Christmas Remembrance Service.

Once again we are approaching that time of year when Co-Op Funeralcare hold their annual service of remembrance. This event is well attended by many in our local community to bring their sadness and thanksgiving for those who have died, in the context of a worship service. All the local clergy are involved. It is on Wednesday 12th December 7pm at St. Michael's Church.

We are going to the Pennywell Farm Nativity on Saturday 8th December for the 10.30am performance. If you would like to join us it will be £9 per person.

We had over 100 people attend last year and it was wonderful!

Please see Tricia for details.

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement or that you are thankful for that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other.

Thanks. Sarah

Here is something from my daily bible verse which I have found useful:

Lord, teach us how to pray...Luke 11:1

Here are some elements of an effective prayer life.

We must have confidence in prayer as a practical power (Hebrews 11:6)

We must be frank and earnest in the presence of God (Matthew 7:7)

We must be definite in our requests (Mark 7:9-11)

We must ask according to the will of God (1 John 5:14) and seek always to obey His Word and to please Him (1 John 3:22) as our Lord did (John 11:42)

Pete Smith

O Thou by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way!
The path of prayer, Thyself hast trod:
Lord, teach is how to pray!

James Montgomery

Lord, I confess that when I am anxious, I am not fully relying on You. Give me the courage to let go of my fears and meagre plans, and to embrace the good, life-giving plan You have for me.
