What does it mean for the Church to be a people of peace?

How can we preach peace to those who are far off?

How do we walk faithfully in the footsteps of the One who was crucified and raised to life?

One day seminar with internationally known speaker Michael Hardin exploring nonviolence and how this path of discipleship can impact the mission of the Church

Join us for a day of teaching, conversation and inspiration

To book a space or for more info contact Joe on 01626 680944 or email evangelistjoe@live.com

This event is free.

Michael simply asks for donations towards his ministry and work

Your continued support is much appreciated. The boxes with their contents speak words of love and hope, bringing joy into the lives of children who would otherwise go without a gift this Christmas.

Leaflets for your shoeboxes are now available please bring your filled shoeboxes to church on 3rd November.

If you are not able to fill a whole shoebox, please put any items you can give into the spare box on the display table. These will be used to make up another

John Wesley said

"I believe that more people have entered the kingdom through my prayers than through my preaching."
