Sunday 7th March

10:30am Worship service

From David

A notice to start with – we will be meeting for prayer on Monday 8th March at 8:00 p.m. for 30 minutes.

Beyond that, I cannot say too much about plans for the church. After the government's announcements about the roadmap for coming out of lockdown restrictions, it is unclear about how this will be applied to church gatherings. As a leadership, we are looking out for denominational guidance once the changes to rules are published. And we know any plans depend on the viral transmissions. So we wait.

It does look like it will be an Easter online for the second year running. Now, as we have all the recordings from last year's services, we could run them again and hope you don't notice. But then everyone participating would look a year younger, would have shorter hair, probably, and even less grey. So maybe you won't have to be concerned that we will merely have a load of repeats.

Can you imagine it, if worship was a load of repeats? Not the end of the world in terms of content, but I do believe that our worship needs to be a fresh expression every week of our life with Jesus. And coming up with new ideas is part of keeping us on our toes so our actual walk with Jesus is fresh every time.

So, anything new going on in your life with Christ? I know there is, and a few of you have contributed such things to this newsletter and others. Why not make a short video too and we can add that to our Sunday worship.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected.

Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following?

Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh.

If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share.

If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

For Every Action There is a Reaction part 2 Cicely Ormes

Cecily Ormes was the wife of Edmund Ormes of Norwich. At the death of Miller and Elizabeth Cooper she had said that "She would pledge them of the same cup they drank of." For these words the civil authorities, often loath to arrest heretics, had no choice but to take her to the chancellor, who would have discharged her if she had promised to go to church and to keep her belief to herself.

As she would not consent to this, the chancellor urged that he had shown more leniency to her than any other person, and was unwilling to condemn her, because she was an ignorant foolish woman; to this she replied, (perhaps with more shrewdness than he expected) that however great his desire might be to spare her sinful flesh, it could not equal her inclination to surrender it up in so great a quarrel. The chancellor then pronounced the fiery sentence, and September 23, 1557, she was taken to Lollard Pit at eight o'clock in the morning.

After declaring her faith to the people, she laid her hand on the same stake at which Miller and Cooper had been burnt, and said "Welcome, thou cross of Christ." Her hand was covered in soot in doing this and she at first wiped it only to touch it again. This time she welcomed and embraced the stake. After the tormentors had unhurriedly built up the faggots and kindled the fire, she prayed then crossed her hands upon her breast, and 'looking upwards with the utmost serenity, she withstood the fiery furnace. Her hands continued gradually to rise until the sinews were dried, and then they fell. She uttered no sigh of pain but yielded her life.'

Putting this story down has benefitted me a lot because it has helped me with my faith. It doesn't matter to me how many people pour scorn on Jesus's life on earth, and many do! Jesus came to tell us just how much our heavenly father knows and understands the heart of man. In two thousand years we haven't changed. We cannot change without God. There is only one way to reconcile our hearts.

And he told them this parable: The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest. He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.' Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry." But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?' This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God.'" NIV, Luke 12:16-21.

Thank you Rachel Hockridge for sharing the following:

I would like to share with everyone this new song which I have been listening to recently I have found the lyrics particularly meaningful and uplifting to me following the loss of my Dad and the difficult times I have had in the months that have followed.

Loving Kindness by Matt Papa Matt Boswell Matt Redman

Verse 1

Let praises now awake the dawn
We'll greet Your mercy with a song
Your people stand and sing for all
Your lovingkindness
You've carried us in faithfulness
Upon the paths of righteousness
Our gracious King You've crowned us with
Your lovingkindness

Chorus

How great Your lovingkindness
O God of goodness
Our joy forever to sing the glad refrain
Of grace that saved us
Of sweet forgiveness
O how great is
Your lovingkindness

Verse 2

You lift us with a Father's hand
You shelter us with Your commands
What heart could fully comprehend
Your mercies endless
You lead us through the shadows deep
Where doubts trace every step it seems
But as the darkness breaks we'll see
The morning promise

Verse 3

A life laid down to rescue us
With arms outstretched upon the cross
The greatest Gift there ever was
Of lovingkindness
A life laid down to rescue us
With arms outstretched upon the cross
The greatest Gift there ever was
Of lovingkindness
Your lovingkindness

I have been carried in faithfulness through this difficult time, lifted with the fathers hand, there to lead me in the deep shadows and through it all was the greatest gift of loving kindness from a life laid down to rescue me with arms outstretched upon a cross.

I have also felt the love and warmth and care from my many friends in my church family who have supported me and been there to listen to me during past 7 months

Many thanks Rachel

A prayer... From the tearfund lent resources...
Embrace who God is
'In you, Lord my God, I put my trust.' (Psalm 25:1)

Use these moments to open yourself to the presence of your loving God. Pause. Breathe deeply and with intent. And pray:

Yahweh, the great 'I am',
Created by the one who made the heavens and the Earth, I am.
Inspired by the one who breathed life into all living things, I am.
Rescued by the one who gave Noah the blueprint for the ark, I am.
Confident in the one who kept the promise to Abraham, I am.
Appointed by the one who gave Joseph purpose, I am.
Freed by the one who broke the chains of injustice in Egypt, I am.
Enabled by the one who makes it possible to defeat giants with a sling, I am.
Restored by the one who brought Israel back from exile, I am.
Forgiven by the one who cries out forgiveness from the cross, I am.
Awakened by the one awakens the dead, I am.
Renewed by the one who will renew all things, I am.
Made in the image of the one called, 'I am who I am', I am.
Amen.

Can you help Kingscare, you don't need to leave your home...

The Covid-19 Cookery Book Project

Background - As the Covid-19 pandemic drags on with little prospect of a return to normal in the near future, so many people are getting bored with the monotony of it all. We're all finding it that much more difficult to keep upbeat and positive and trying to think of something new to talk about is getting harder.

Cue - we need a new project.

The idea - most of us have memories of particular delicacies that we enjoyed in our family home. Often it was created by a recipe that has been handed down through the generations. Sometimes it's something that was found in a magazine and became a firm favourite or even something that Mum created herself and everyone loved.

Do you have a recipe that you would like to share with others? If so, we'd love to hear from you. To take part all we ask is that you:

1. Decide on the recipe
2. Create the dish
3. Take a colour photo of the dish
4. Write up a history of the dish
5. Choose a photo of yourself or an old family photo of the creator of the dish or the family together

"I don't cook any more" - No problem. We have volunteers who will cook it for you.

"I don't have a camera" - No problem. We have volunteers who can take a photo.

"I don't have a computer" - No problem. We do.

If you don't have a recipe you can still be involved, we need a name for the book and would love your suggestions.

Submit the recipe and the photos to manager@kingscare.co.uk by 5pm on Friday 19th March.

The book will be printed in full colour and presented as an A4 ring bound edition. All contributors will be given a FREE copy.

For more details, please ring the KingsCare office on 01626 357090

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.
