

whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Philippians chapter 4 verse 8

7:00pm Word Alive! at Slanns Meadow How do you decide what is right and wrong?

From the minister-in-training....

See I have chosen Bezalel...and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, with understanding, with knowledge and all kinds of skills..to make artistic designs and ..to engage in all kinds of crafts.

Exodus 31:2-4

This isn't a thought to justify or encourage Craft and Chatter (although that would absolutely not be unreasonable!). But this week I have been thinking about being creative and allowing the Holy Spirit to power that creativity. At college we were filming for a series of Lent Fuelcast broadcasts and there was a real buzz around the different ways we had responded to the passages in Luke we were asked to give a "thought for the day" on. Do go along to the website and sign up. <https://www.thefuelcast.com/>

There are so many opportunities now to engage in the creative world in its broadest sense; Facebook, TikTok, Instagram are all places of crafting images and words. I can hear you now, wondering quite rightly if I have got that correct. Because those places and social media more generally can also be places of real darkness, spite, childish squabbles and more dangerous threats.

So as we as a church think about the love of God and we continue to consider our Frontlines, can I suggest that many of us now have a digital frontline? If we engage with it, let's really think about what we post, or repost. Let's be creative with the Holy Spirit to change the tone and reclaim this world for its Creator. Let's be the salt and light in what can be a tasteless and dark place

Prayer for Ukraine

A prayer from Christian Aid

God of all peoples and nations,
Who created all things alive and breathing,
United and whole,
Show us the way of peace that is Your overwhelming presence.
We hold before you the peoples of Ukraine and Russia,
Every child and every adult.
We long for the time
When weapons of war are beaten into ploughshares
When nations no longer lift up sword against nation.
We cry out to you for peace;
Protect those who only desire and deserve to live in security and safety
Comfort those who fear for their lives and the lives of their loved ones
Be with those who are bereaved.
Change the hearts of those set on violence and aggression
And fill leaders with the wisdom that leads to peace.
Kindle again in us a love of our neighbour,
And a passion for justice to prevail and a renewed recognition that we all play a part in peace.
Creator of all hear our prayer
And bring us peace. Make us whole.
Amen

Travelling Nativity!

The Travelling Nativity visited several homes and we have received brilliant feedback and comments, ...

“(from a child’s notes) me and Daddy had a good time plaing with the ntivity Daddy liked the shepood and I liked the sheep there is one shepood we love it E and Daddy. E liked it so much that they playd with it.” (from a child’s notes)

“A and A enjoyed playing with the characters and loved the short film. A read the story to her sister which is so sweet to look at. Travelling Nativity is such a fantastic idea, we all enjoyed. Thank you for the star too, A already hang it on our little corner”

“S, J and H were very excited when the travelling nativity arrived 😊 We shared the stories and S and J retold the story using the lovely knitted characters. Thank you for the star! Proudly hanging on the tree ✦ Thank you KILTS – such a lovely idea, see you in January.”

Thanks to all who have been involved a real success and blessing to all who borrowed it.

We are very grateful to you for your support over the months and years, as we seek to make a big difference for disadvantaged and vulnerable people in Moldova and Ukraine who face many challenges and have so little.

Hugh has prepared a “Winter 2022-23 Newsletter”, which describes some of the amazing things that have been achieved thanks to your support, and outlines the current situation and needs in Moldova and Ukraine. (Sent out with this newsletter and on our website under this week’s newsletter).

Kind regards,

Hugh, Graham and Richard

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others.
