Make a note in your diary

🕒 June's Friday Outing, on the 17th, is to Plant World please see Christina for more information

🕒 Friday 10th and Saturday 11th June Walk Through the New Testament, @ Teignmouth Baptist Church.

The cost of the event is £14.00 for adults which includes a colourful workbook and is a one off attendance fee, the workbook being a free pass to future Walk Through NT events.

In case you are not familiar with Walk Through the Bible ministries you may like to visit http://www.bible.org.uk/adult_events_why.php

The event provides an overview of the New Testament which is memorable and entertaining, helping to give a feel for the geographical context as well as an understanding of the timeline. People are often inspired to read the bible more frequently and with fresh insights.

For more information please see the side table or contact Peter Ingal on 01626 889239 or e-mail peteringal@gmail.com

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up,”

1 Thessalonians 5:11

It would be brilliant if you could let me know your favourite verse, if you let me know why that would be even better just as Val Hyde has done...

He has rescued us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love.

Colossians 1v13

*I love the knowledge that God sent his beloved son, Jesus, to rescue me personally & permanently from Satan’s dominion and all things pertaining to darkness. He saw me in my helplessness & hopelessness & powerfully but tenderly, lifted me into Jesus’ kingdom of love. He is the Light that expunges even the blackest darkness; when my thoughts / feelings tell me otherwise, I declare this verse boldly and receive Jesus’ assurance that I am rescued, redeemed & forever in His kingdom! Val
PS Val gave me this verse before David’s sermon last week...*

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other...thank you Sarah

CAP

The first KCBC CAP Money Course has just finished. I wanted to share how informative, encouraging and helpful this course has been. It was very informal, friendly and supportive. We used the CAP booklet and watched sessions on the DVD. Had some homework to do and shared honestly our tips and habits for handling money. We found alternative ways to be good stewards and save money. Everyone had different reasons for doing the course. You do not need to be in debt to benefit from it but if you are it can be the tool to changing your situation.

I would encourage anyone who may be thinking of doing this course to put their name down for the next one (if you would like to know more please talk to Val Hyde)

Hall setting up and clearing away

At 8:30 a.m. most Sundays, Nat has been down at the hall setting up and has done much putting away at the end of the service. However, Nat's condition means he can no longer do this but now is the time for all who can to step in and share the load.

Here is how we need to operate:

Before the service: Musicians set up instruments, p.a. operators set up the sound system, laptop operators set up projector.

10:00 a.m. Able bodied people arrive to set up chairs, tables, noticeboards, baby area and banners.

After the service: Musicians, p.a. and laptop operators clear up their own equipment but no more.

At 12:20 to 12:30, able bodied people stay behind to clear away the chairs, tables, notice boards, baby area and banners.

All this means is staying behind a little longer, though many are there anyway. This also leaves us all free to talk to guests, have prayer ministry and have pastoral conversations after the service, leaving general clearing to when many people leave the hall anyway. The extra may only be a mere 5 minutes work before you leave.

Let me know how you get on, or if you can improve this system.

Thanks! David
