“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

Along time ago when Nick and I were struggling with issues with a neighbour Ian Davies gave us the following which greatly encouraged us, now feels like the right time to pass it on.

“Rest in my love, relax in my care and know that my presence will always be there”.

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement or that you are thankful for that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other. Sarah

Line Dancing

Regardless of your line dancing experience, you are invited to come along to this KCBC social event on Saturday 16th March. We will start at 6:30 p.m. and finish by about 9:00. Light refreshments and nibbles all included in the cost, which is a bargain at £5 for adults, £1 for children.

This is a great event to invite friends to and judging by the last one, suitable for children. Tickets will be available shortly.

We are thinking of running an Alpha Course at KCBC. But what is it?

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each talk looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation. Alpha is run all around the globe, and everyone's welcome. It runs in cafés, churches, universities, homes—you name it. No two Alphas look the same, but generally they have three key things in common: food, a talk and good conversation.

To run one, we will have to think how to pitch it in our context, then, using the many resources, plan the course. All we need now is a team of people willing to meet and discuss. Pray about whether this is something you could be a part of - or maybe come as a guest and explore faith for yourself.
