From the Minister

Whoever oppresses the poor shows contempt for their Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honours God. (Proverbs chapter 14 verse 31)

This Bible verse shouts at us in the current cost of living crisis and provides wisdom for us to live by. It may be that you are or are facing a severe financial squeeze and need to know our God is God of the Poor. Or you might be one of those who honours the Lord through your acts of kindness. But where does KCBC fit in? Surely we are a church, not just another social action group.

The Bible is clear. Individually and together, part of our purpose is express the compassion of Jesus into the local community. KCBC is working with a number of local groups working to coordinate our response to the rising needs. Rose and I are not just invited now to events and discussion, there is an expectation that the church will contribute usefully and our resources are listed with the rest.

If you think you need help through these times, please take on of the leaflets available in the church or go to <https://www.teignbridgecostoflivingsupport.org/> A dedicated Kingsteignton resource is being put together and will be available soon – look out for banners in town advertising this resource. Or you may know someone who needs help. Use the leaflets and show them how to access help.

Let us honour the Lord in this way.

David

Prayer for Ukraine –A Prayer for Peace

God of peace and justice,

we pray for the people of Ukraine today.

We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.

We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.

We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.

We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.

Amen

Archbishop Justin Welby & Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

Hi There

My name is Simon and I'm part of the Glo Community in Torbay.

I've recently started a project called "Life of Rhythm" which aims to help people learn to deal with stress and the chaos of life, by learning simple practices based on the life of Jesus.

As part of this mission I am running a number of Guided Walks on Dartmoor, each with a different theme.

One of the practices Jesus regularly adopted was to spend time alone in the Er-ay-mos (the wilderness, desert, desolate place).

Dartmoor is one of those places - a wild, desolate landscape. where it's easy to find some silence and solitude.

Jesus visited these places, on numerous occasions, to take time away, to re-charge, re-focus and receive. And so during my guided walks we will do the same, through some simple guided practices.

The initial walks I'm arranging include De-Stress Walks and Retreat Walks with more to follow including Discovering our True Identity, Men's, Women's, Sunset, Star Gazing and many more. I can also Bespoke Group Walks which can be tailored to individual requirements including teams, communities and youth.

All the information can be found on my website - www.lifeofrhythm.com/guidedwalks and my Facebook Page www.facebook.com/alifeofrhythm

If this would be of any interest to anyone in your community then I would be really grateful if you could advertise or spread the word in whatever way seems most appropriate.

If you have any questions then please do not hesitate to contact me. (Details below).

Christian Response to Easter Europe (cr2ee)

This year our shoeboxes will go to CR2EE, Hugh Scudder from the charity will be joining us in November to collect them and share with us about some of the work the charity does (date to be confirmed).

In the meantime, here is a link to the rather long (Hugh's words not mine) Autumn newsletter which will give you some idea as to what the charity is doing at the moment.

“Giving love and new hope in a shoebox.”

All items need to be new and non-perishable.

Examples of items that can go into the boxes include hats, toothpaste, hairbrush, toys, craft items, toiletries, puzzles, colouring books. CR2EE also suggest a Christmas card or photo of the family sending the box as the recipients love to know who is sending the gift.

If you have access to the internet here is the link with full details of how you can help <https://www.kcbchurch.org.uk/cms/files/2020-CR2EE-Christmas-Shoebox.pdf> , if you do not have access to the internet and would like more information, please let Sarah know and she will get a copy of the leaflet to you.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in “person” this may be the way for you to encourage others.

A message from the South West Baptist association

Engaging with Contemporary Culture (5/11 & 3/12) – the world we live in continues to go through the most dramatic changes many of us have seen in living memory. How can we relate the unchanging message of the gospel to those immersed in the post-pandemic, post-Christian, digitally integrated, increasingly economically challenging culture in which we live? Rev Carl Smethurst (Regional Minister – Mission, SWBA) with contributions from Hannah Fleming-Hill (Digital Missioner) help us navigate our way in this 'brave new world'...

Details and booking here > <https://bookwhen.com/swbaptists/e/ev-szr6-20221105100000>

All our PFS modules are now available onsite in our Exeter offices (for the best possible experience) or by Zoom (for those who can't attend in Exeter).

Many thanks!

Blessing Carl Smethurst Regional Minister – Mission South West Baptist Association
