Sunday 7th February

10:30am Communion Worship service

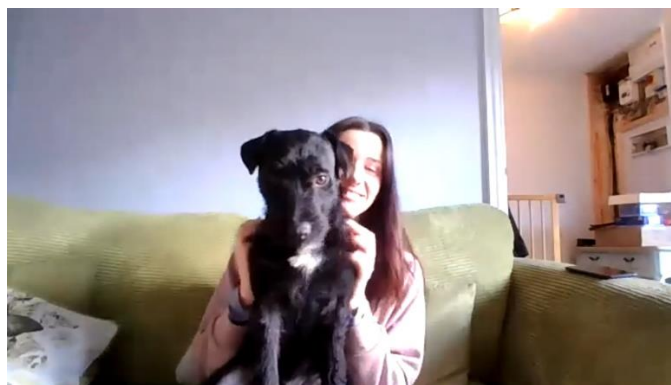

See below for some great pics of pets. It was easy to see how much happiness they bring to the various owners. What we didn't see was the amount of work they bring to care for them but it wasn't an occasion for that. We could just enjoy them and appreciate your pleasure.

We also had our highest number of screens at the service. After all we do, week after week, gathering together for worship, it is the pet service that drew people in. It can't be that we are shallow, just wanting entertaining. There is far more around that entertains. Maybe it is the sharing of something so familiar as our pets, then taking that to thanksgiving in worship that drew us together.

We need that, especially now. We can take the everyday pleasures, turn them to thankfulness and lead on to praises to God. Before we know it, we are out of our locked in mindset and freed to worship Almighty God, awed at the love of God shown on the cross and filled with His Spirit.

So thank you to everyone who brought a pet, real or not. You helped enrich our worship.

Here are some highlights from the Pet Service last week....some of our furry friends looked happier to be there than others

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected.

Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following?

Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh.

If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share.

Sarah

Thank you to Mary Nicholls for the following:

Said the robin to the sparrow –
‘Oh I really want to know,
Why these anxious human beings
Rush around and worry so’.

Said the sparrow to the robin –
‘Friend I think that it must be
That they have no heavenly father,
Such as cares for you and me’

My Lord

I have turned to my Lord for His cleansing
From all of my guilt and each stain;
He has washed me and set my soul singing
The Lord in my heart will remain.

I have turned to my Lord for His healing
Of wounds which are hidden within;
He has touched me and brought the restoring
The Lord of all power has come in.

I have turned to my Lord for His leading
To show me His way for each day;
He has proved in His Word and His timing
The Lord is the One to obey.

I have turned to my Lord for His strength 'ning
To face all the pressures of life;
He has given His grace and enabling
The Lord Who brings peace in the strife.

I have turned to my Lord for His filing
With love for the whole of my life;
He has poured out His love and His blessing
The Lord, the dear Lord of my life.

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

A warm welcome to you
...from all at Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church

In light of the Coronavirus containment measures, we have had to suspend all activities at KCBC until we get the all-clear for groups to meet again ... in particular

- No Sunday service at the Community Hall
- No KILTS
- Messy church cancelled for March, April and May. June to be decided on.

Our prayers are for some positive things to come out of this time for you and your family.

We are pleased to welcome you to our website. Our church community is made up of people from many different stages of life and cultural backgrounds and we hope you will join us and find KCBC can be a place you can call 'home'.

It may be that you would like to visit us in person and we want to
