From David...

Christmas is coming. OK, it is 12 weeks away, but this year will, you understand, be different. Probably. So now is the time we look to make the most of our celebration of the birth of our Saviour.

I was talking to Phil Nevard this week, and we were batting around ideas of themes. The suggestion is around that churches focus on hope, but that easily leads into a focus on hope the virus is overcome soon and we can all get a vaccination and get on with things as normal. That's as maybe but not quite the hope of Christmas. We agreed that 'light' was a better theme. Dark times or just different, we want the light of Christ to enter every home, every heart. Now that is worth gathering around.

That light is something we need to think and pray about how we can bring it to people who don't usually attend a Christmas services but might like to. What can we provide for those on the fringe of our church life? We talked about an online Christingle service run by all three churches, at our leadership meeting it was suggested we plan a video version of the Nativity Play. What more can we do? Let us come before the Lord and seek Him.

There is likely to be a Christmas with few or no gatherings for Christmas worship. Maybe there will be a hunger to reach out for something. What can the churches provide? A time for prayer.

Rev David Goddard

Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church

Devon

Dear David,

Please thank your congregation for their donation of food and £60.00.

We are most appreciative of your support at what is an unprecedented time where increasing numbers are facing financial difficulties.

We have been very busy during the Covid outbreak and are aware that the demand for our services is likely to increase. We give grateful thanks to our manager and volunteers who have continued to work during this time and to all those who have continued to support us enabling us to meet the needs of our local community.

Yours sincerely

Hazel Harrison (Secretary)

Videos and photos of you...

To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off.

Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected.

Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following?

Something you are thankful for....Something that has made you laugh.

If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share

Sarah

Please remember that without your input this will be really dull or even empty....
