

Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them!

“Peace be with you,” he said.

John chapter 20 verse 19

From David

We have been able to look back over the year and reflect on what lockdown has been for us. We have looked inwards as we have examined how we feel. We have looked outwards as we have tried to connect with people around us – at a suitable distance, of course. But it is Easter. So let's look up. We look up to the Lord God, from whom all things take their purpose and their place in the universe. We look to Jesus, who through His action on the cross affirms our place in God's family.

Much of secular culture encourages us to look to ourselves. It is true that we have to look to ourselves and to each other to take responsibility where it is ours. But we don't get far if we just look to ourselves. All we see there is yet another creature that doesn't last that long and is soon forgotten. But when we look to the Lord, we see glory, beauty, purity, creative power and compassion. We see One who is so unlike us we often find it difficult to connect. Well, we can't any more than we can connect with a garden snail. But the Lord, above all and beyond all has connected with us at the point of our suffering, in the death of Jesus.

So this Easter, time out from looking at us to looking to our mighty Saviour and Redeemer. There we find our home.

In the Kingsteignton Town Council newsletter this week...

Thank you to KCBC and all in our Town who launched the 'Virtual Community Christmas Service'

Our sincere thanks go to the members of our community who joined the organiser, Reverend David Goddard of Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church) and other clergy for kindly putting together and broadcasting the virtual Community Christmas Carol Service via YouTube.

This hopefully brought a little Christmas cheer to our residents who were unable to attend the usual Annual Civic Carol Service normally held by the Mayor at the Community Hall.

We only hope that we may be able to resume with our normal event in December 2021, however, at the present time this cannot be confirmed.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

*Living, He loved me; dying, He saved me;
Buried, He carried my sins far away!
Rising, He justified, freely for ever;
One day He's coming - O glorious day!*

Thank you to Anja for sharing the following supported by BMS

CAMPAIGN FOR A COVID-FREE WORLD
JOIN THE GLOBAL CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT FOR EQUITABLE VACCINE ACCESS

Sign this petition and fight for a world where everyone is safe from the effects of Covid-19.

By signing, you will:

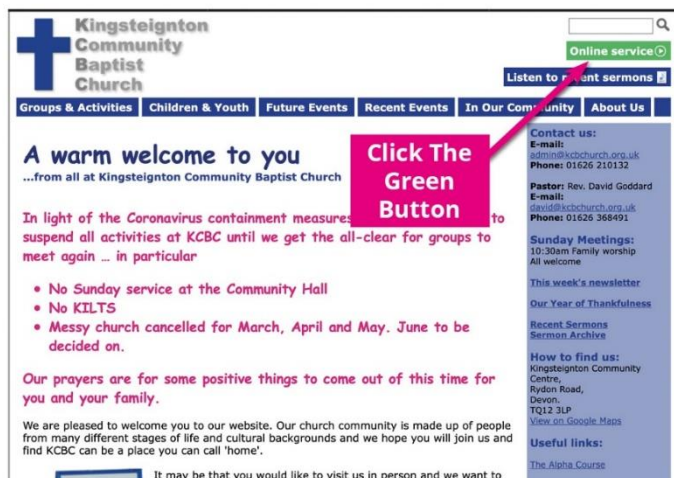

- join a movement of UK Christians whose signatures will go to 10 Downing Street, calling for the Government to take on the four justice steps below. We'll also provide you with prayer points and other opportunities to make a practical difference.
- add your support to the Baptist World Alliance's (BWA) petition calling for action from world governments, and thus stand in solidarity with the BWA family of over 47 million global Baptists.

Friday Outings are transforming into Friday Elevenses at Home. They will take place once a month on Zoom on a Friday morning at 11am, and are an opportunity for a chat. Our first session was on Friday 12th February at 11am, next one on 23rd April. If you are interested please contact Christina Greeves or Sue Watkin (kbcscscribe@hotmail.com) who can send you the meeting link. Thanks Christina

Videos and photos of you...To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

'How to join the Sunday Service'.

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing
