Prayer Meeting at Haytor 11 October from 10am to 2pm organised by the Devon Prayer Initiative.

There will be other groups meeting at the same time across Devon and possibly Cornwall.

It is Word Alive again this Sunday evening (5th October) at 7:30, our place. Do come along if you would like to engage in our topic.

We are told, and schools are desperate at times to stress, that all religions lead to the same God. Fear of arguments and in the current world situation there is fear of religious disagreement fuelling conflict and wars. So it is far easier if religions can agree that they are all about the same thing and believe in the same God. Some Christians see that all religions have something through which they can be saved (but Christianity is the full message); others think that all will go to hell. With Islam at the top of many people's thoughts, what do other religions and cults believe?

We are likely to be called to comment by those not in the church. So what do you believe? And do you know about the major world religions to even comment on them? And are we just being arrogant to believe Christianity alone has the Truth?

Come along with your views, questions, doubts and difficulties with how Christians sit with other faiths. You are welcome to join us even if you have never been before.

Just a thought from J.R.McM

Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked, for the LORD will be at your side and will keep your foot from being snared. Proverbs 3:25

*“Here in the wandering maze of things,
When tossed by storm or flood;
To one fixed ground my spirit clings
I know that God is good.” J G Whittier*

We are apt to declare that God is good when we see His interventions of mercy in our lives. But we should recall that God is good – full stop. He cannot be otherwise, no matter the circumstances.

*If you have any encouragement you would like included in the newsletter, or you know of other events, or changes to our programme, please let me know.
I would rather be told twice than not at all.
If I don't know about it I can't put it in the newsletter!
Thank you Sarah*
