What an amazing ministry Messy Church has proved to be! We have a regular group of families who are part of our Messy Community and a great team of helpers who do everything from helping on craft tables to cooking. Some of our helpers have needed to step down leaving a few gaps. The next few dates are 25th March and 22nd April.

Perhaps you could help out? Ask David what there is to do, and see if you can contribute. You cannot help to be encouraged as you take up a Messy Ministry.

Make a note in your diary

Word Alive

We meet again at 30 Slanns Meadow at 7:30 p.m. for Word Alive. Our question is, “What is a Christian response to environmental issues?”

This sounds fairly easy. We recycle, use low energy bulbs, grow our own food, drive a hybrid car, cycle where possible and support the erection of wind turbines in Teignbridge. Really?

First, how does the Bible guide us on environmental issues? What does it say about sustainability, lowering of our carbon footprint and consumption of meat? Is it even an important Christian faith issue?

Second, does our response really matter? Significant changes that will help the environment, reduce emissions and lower our consumption of the earth's resources are not in our hands. Really, they are not. People around the world need energy and coal is the preferred choice for the next 30 years at least. Homes are needed and cities are the preferred destination. Land for habitation is scarce and there isn't room for many to have their own plot of land to support themselves above subsistence level. Can a Christian response go further than a token effort to calm our conscience as we fill up our green bin?

I believe we can gain from confronting this issue but we will have to dig deep. The Bible will come into our discussions and may provide us with a few surprises. So do come along ready to think, listen, contribute. We all share this world around so let's all gather around the Word in an attempt to please God in how we respond.

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing ” 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other. Thanks. Sarah
