From the Minister

'When you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.' (Matthew chapter 6 verse 3)

So how will people know about the difference Jesus makes to our lives if we can't publicise our good works?

Commercial businesses sponsor good causes and get the benefit of having their brand advertised. At Exeter Chiefs' rugby matches, each player's sponsor is read out before the game. 'Bob Smith sponsored by Fred the butchers'. It is quite amusing. Sponsors get publicity from their giving. A fair trade.

So when churches are involved in a good cause, publicity can follow. I think it is important for the community to know we are on board with supporting those around us in their need. But publicity? Should we seek it?

In events such as the Ram Fair, we are openly proclaiming Christ as the hope within. But when we are seeking to take our place in social action and giving, how about we don't worry about having our label, our brand, attached. Let the right hand keep quiet about its actions. Much of this is not about swelling our numbers. We are involved because it is good to do and it surely is part of our following in the footsteps of Jesus.

Prayer for Ukraine – A Prayer for Peace

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children,
at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.

Amen

Christian Response to Easter Europe (cr2ee)

This year our shoeboxes will go to CR2EE, Hugh Scudder from the charity will be joining us on this week to share with us about some of the work the charity does.

In the meantime, here is a link to the rather long (Hugh's words not mine) Autumn newsletter which will give you some idea as to what the charity is doing at the moment.

“Giving love and new hope in a shoebox.”

All items need to be new and non-perishable.

Examples of items that can go into the boxes include hats, toothpaste, hairbrush, toys, craft items, toiletries, puzzles, colouring books. CR2EE also suggest a Christmas card or photo of the family sending the box as the recipients love to know who is sending the gift.

If you have access to the internet here is the link with full details of how you can help <https://www.kcbchurch.org.uk/cms/files/2020-CR2EE-Christmas-Shoebox.pdf> , if you do not have access to the internet and would like more information, please let Sarah know and she will get a copy of the leaflet to you.

A message from Bill and Susanna

We've been here a week already - full of good stuff. Giving clothes to the poorest, ministering to the sick for healing, speaking at a village house church and the youth group at the main church. Powerful worship and prayer times in the start of the day. Quite a lot of one to one as well. Much the same to come this week before Bill preaches in the main church service next Sunday morning (on the 16th).

Had the most beautiful communion service in a home yesterday with a lady unable to get to church for about 6 years!

Susanna is really enjoying herself catching up with precious friends and coming to all the meetings. It really is a joy for us both to be back here.

A group of 23 Germans arrived yesterday being involved with a schedule of projects from building a home, chopping wood, cooking food, distributing care packages & ministering in the community. They are a lively bunch who so love the Lord.

The prayer meetings we have every day are fantastic - full of life & spirit ... certainly not to be missed!

Hoping to send some pictures (as soon as we work out how to!).
Thank you for the encouragement and prayers.

Blessings
Susanna + Bill

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others.

NOVEMBER ACTIVITY SHEET

Some creative ways to pass the time at home this month

1st November: November is National Novel Writing Month, which sets the challenge for anyone to write 50,000 words of a novel in 30 days. Could you get involved? If you have the internet, you can visit nanowrimo.org for more information, or simply get writing to join in!

2nd: The world's first regular TV service was started by the British Broadcasting Corporation in 1936, with an estimated 100 TV owners tuning in. What are some of the first TV shows you can remember watching, or what are some of your favourite TV shows over the years?

3rd: It's Sandwich Day. Try whipping up a unique and original sandwich from whatever ingredients you can find in your cupboards and fridge.

4th: November is National Gratitude Month. Try to write down each day 1-3 things you feel grateful for.

5th: It's Guy Fawkes Day / Bonfire Night. Try our quick Bonfire Night quiz (answers below) b

- What was Guy Fawkes' real first name?
- Which King did Guy Fawkes attempt to kill with his Gunpowder Plot?
- What year did the Gunpowder Plot take place?
- Which 'P' is the technical term for making and displaying fireworks?
- Although Guy Fawkes is the most well-known member of the Gunpowder Plot, who was the leader?

6th: Write a list of 1-5 things you would like to do or achieve during this month, such as phoning or writing a letter to a friend you haven't spoken to for a while, signing up for a social group or activity, or just watching a film or reading a book you've been meaning to check out for a while. Your goals can be as big or small as you like – whatever will help increase your happiness and/or sense of achievement this month!

7th: It's International Games Week. Plan a date to play your favourite board or card game with a friend or family member this week, or relax with a one-player game such as the card game Patience.

8th: Write an acrostic poem for the word 'Fireworks' (where each line of the poem starts with the next letter of the word fireworks).

9th: How many words can you make from the words Bonfire Night (e.g. Bite, fine)?

10th: On this day in 1981 the board game Trivial Pursuit was registered. Can you remember the themes for each of the game's original category colours? (Answers below)

11th: What is your favourite November memory? Whether it's a birthday, wedding, holiday, fireworks event or other special memory, spend some time reminiscing or writing about this.

12th: Get your home extra cosy for those cold November nights by investing in a new candle, blanket or cushion.

13th: It's World Kindness Day. Try to do one small act of kindness today, such as writing someone a kind note or card, sharing something you have baked, or giving someone an encouraging phone call.

14th: Write a short story, poem or paragraph based on this photo. Who would you like to say is in the photo? Where are they? What happens next?

15th: Draw and colour some fireworks.

16th: Solve this riddle: The more of me you take, the more you leave behind. What am I? (Answer below)

17th: Set yourself a challenge to move more throughout the day. Try to stand up briefly or go for a little walk every hour to boost your health and ward off any stiffness.

18th: We've included a wordsearch below.

19th: Wrap up warm, take a cold-weather walk and enjoy the sights of the changing season. Take a photo of an autumn scene if you can. This could be of a tree, a pile of leaves, or a bird or other creature you spot while out and about.

20th: Draw a picture from the photo you took on your walk yesterday, or of a scene out your window.

21st: It's National Bible Week. Write down three of your favourite Bible verses that bring you comfort or joy, and leave them somewhere you can see them this week.

22nd: Read half a short story and make up your own ending!

23rd: Learn a new word this month! Use it in a sentence, write a poem or story with this as the title, or tell someone what it means.

24th: Start or end the day in a peaceful way by connecting with nature, by watching the sunrise or sunset from your window or a favourite spot outdoors.

25th: On this day in 1984 Band Aid rock stars gathered at Sarm Studios in London to record "Do They Know It's Christmas", with all proceeds going to Ethiopian famine relief. If you were to form a charity supergroup of musicians to re-record this (or any song) who would you choose?

26th: Relax and warm up with a bubble bath while listening to your favourite music or reading a good book.

27th: It's National Tree Week. Go for a walk and see how many different types of tree you can spot (bonus points if you can name them, but it doesn't matter if not!)

28th: Famous novelist Jonathan Swift was born in November 1667. Taking some inspiration from his novel Gulliver's Travels, spend some time today creating your own imaginary land. What is it called? What does it look like? What are its inhabitants like? Draw a picture or write down some notes about the land you have created.

29th: Get in the festive spirit early by making or writing some Christmas Cards to give out.

30th: What have you most enjoyed during November? Write something you are grateful for or would like to remember from this month.
