

After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

Sunday 13th June

10:30am Worship service at the Community Hall

– please remember that you need to book your place with Sue

From David

We continue with our hybrid Sunday worship time at least for the next 3 weeks. A huge thank you from all of us to the team who have worked to overcome the challenges involved to produce this amazing hybrid broadcasting opportunity. Particular thanks to Nick and Richard, who were left to run it alone last week. How did you do it?

I appreciate it is a bit of a hassle to book to attend, or just easy to forget. To make Sue's life easier, and yours, when Sue sends round the weekly reminder, just reply YES and Sue will take that as a request for a place.

Now for the repeat... as we are having live worship at the Community Hall, a reminder of the way it works...

We will join together in a hybrid time of live and Zoom, a key difference of the live service having singing together and an opportunity for talking face-to-face afterwards outside the hall.

It is anticipated that we will all come back at our own pace. Some are waiting to get both jabs, others seeing how it goes, others diving in straight away and paving the way for the rest of us.

Our meeting is to be as safe as we can reasonably make it. The hall is sanitised before we arrive (and after!), the numbers meeting are low, and we will have plenty of ventilation. If you are concerned about meeting others, you may come and go without being anywhere near anyone and do not need to chat. You may even leave before the outdoors singing.

We will respect those who are attending but need to take extra care because they can't (yet) have a vaccination. We will keep a reasonable distance when talking and avoid contact like shaking hands or hugging, except with permission.

We need a helpers

To enable to hybrid services (hall and Zoom) to continue, we need your help.

Could you...

- Be part of the Tech. team, we need extra volunteers to help with the PA and production of the Zoom service (full training will be provided).
- Help with Eagles and Owls?

A full set of clear instructions are provided for each team.

If you are able to help please let David or a member of the leadership team know you really will be an answer to prayer.... Thank you

Notes for your diary

- Quiz – Graham has kindly agreed to host another Quiz via zoom it will be on Saturday 19th June at 7:30pm – link to follow nearer the time. These will hopefully continue as long as we have enough interest so invite friends and family don't forget you can now meet in groups to make up teams.
- June's Friday Meetings
 Friday 11th June 11am Friday Elevenses on Zoom
 Friday 18th June 10.30am Forde Park for Friday Outing (with 25th as a backup if the weather is bad). Please contact Christina or Sue (kbcscribe@hotmail.com) for more information.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

Thanks to Joy for the following: Think big and your deeds will grow,

Think small and you'll fall behind.

Think that you can and you will,

It's all in the state of mind.

Nick and I read this the other evening and it felt like we should share...

Hope for you and me

However difficult our situations may be – however much trouble we are facing in life – there can always be hope. Hope transcends everything: every pain, sorrow, fear and loss. Hope is what sets us apart as children of God. Hope is the light to the dark the comfort to the pain.

Hope comes from knowing God's love for you. We might not feel very hopeful of anything, but His hope is out there – close. Just look for it. Trust it. Even a tiny glimmer is enough. Great fires are started from tiny embers. Just hold on and look up. Hope through the pain and the doubts. Have faith, and know that faith and doubt are simply two sides of the same coin. You will have many doubts. Don't worry. Accept them and know that faith must be close by. Whatever we face, He faces it beside us. He will never desert us.

The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalm 34:18

Take heart all will be well

Hope comes from knowing God's love for you

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

'How to join the Sunday Service via Zoom'

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing

The screenshot shows the homepage of Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church. At the top right, there is a green button labeled "Online service" with a play icon. A red arrow points from a pink callout box that says "Click The Green Button" to this button. The website header includes a search bar, a "Listen to recent sermons" button, and a navigation menu with items like "Groups & Activities", "Children & Youth", "Future Events", "Recent Events", "In Our Community", and "About Us". The main content area features a "A warm welcome to you" message, a notice about suspended activities due to Coronavirus, and a list of bullet points: "No Sunday service at the Community Hall", "No KILTS", and "Messy church cancelled for March, April and May. June to be decided on." The right sidebar contains contact information, meeting times, and useful links.
