

For we were all baptized by[c] one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. 14 Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

From David

It was good to have so many people participate in last week's worship. Mind you, it got to Wednesday and I was panicking about whether I would need to find some extra items of my own to fill the spaces. There were no spaces.

It is easy to think that you have nothing much to bring when we do testimony services. But it is something we can pray for. 'Lord, give me a testimony.' By that I don't simply mean a good story of how you became a Christian, but a story of how God has been at work in your life.

Imagine when we stand before the Lord and he invites us to speak. We blather on for a while explaining how we aren't good with words, we say we can't think of anything. Then we start to say about when we did well in life, our qualifications, that time helped at church, when we wrote to our MP about a very worthy issue. Let us imagine the Lord cutting in and stopping our burbling. The Lord is not interested in hearing about our titles and our triumphs. The Lord wants to hear about our testimonies, when we encountered the Spirit of God, when we were changed by the Spirit of God, when we were thrilled with the Spirit of God.

How about asking for a testimony, ready for next time?

Some pictures of our THAT collection last week.

There were 17 bags of provisions and monetary contributions too, as David said on Sunday a car full which is great. Thanks to all those who contributed.

Friday Outings are transforming into Friday Elevenses at Home. They will take place once a month on Zoom on a Friday morning at 11am, and are an opportunity for a chat. Our first session will be on Friday 12th February at 11am. If you are interested please contact Christina Greeves or Sue Watkin (kbcbscribe@hotmail.com) who can send you the meeting link.

Thanks

Christina

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected.

Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following?

Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh.

If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share.

If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

Thank you to Laura for sharing the following lyrics from a song by Casting Crowns.

If you want to listen to it here is the link <https://www.google.co.uk/search?q=who+am+i&ie=UTF-8&oe=UTF-8&hl=en-gb&client=safari>

Who am I, that the Lord of all the earth
Would care to know my name
Would care to feel my hurt
Who am I, that the Bright and Morning Star
Would choose to light the way
For my ever wandering heart

Not because of who I am
But because of what You've done
Not because of what I've done
But because of who You are

I am a flower quickly fading
Here today and gone tomorrow
A wave tossed in the ocean (ocean)
A vapor in the wind
Still You hear me when I'm calling
Lord, You catch me when I'm falling
And You've told me who I am...
I am Yours, I am Yours

Who am I, that the eyes that see my sin
Would look on me with love and watch me rise again
Who am I, that the voice that calmed the sea
Would call out through the rain
And calm the storm in me

Not because of who I am
But because of what You've done
Not because of what I've done
But because of who You are

I am a flower quickly fading
Here today and gone tomorrow
A wave tossed in the ocean (ocean)
A vapor in the wind
Still You hear me when I'm calling
Lord, You catch me when I'm falling
And You've told me who I am (I am)
I am Yours...

Whom shall I fear
Whom shall I fear
'Cause I am Yours, I am Yours

Can you help Kingscare, you don't need to leave your home...

The Covid-19 Cookery Book Project

Background - As the Covid-19 pandemic drags on with little prospect of a return to normal in the near future, so many people are getting bored with the monotony of it all. We're all finding it that much more difficult to keep upbeat and positive and trying to think of something new to talk about is getting harder.

Cue - we need a new project.

The idea - most of us have memories of particular delicacies that we enjoyed in our family home. Often it was created by a recipe that has been handed down through the generations. Sometimes it's something that was found in a magazine and became a firm favourite or even something that Mum created herself and everyone loved.

Do you have a recipe that you would like to share with others? If so, we'd love to hear from you. To take part all we ask is that you:

1. Decide on the recipe
2. Create the dish
3. Take a colour photo of the dish
4. Write up a history of the dish
5. Choose a photo of yourself or an old family photo of the creator of the dish or the family together

"I don't cook any more" - No problem. We have volunteers who will cook it for you.

"I don't have a camera" - No problem. We have volunteers who can take a photo.

"I don't have a computer" - No problem. We do.

If you don't have a recipe you can still be involved, we need a name for the book and would love your suggestions.

Submit the recipe and the photos to manager@kingscare.co.uk by 5pm on Friday 19th March.

The book will be printed in full colour and presented as an A4 ring bound edition. All contributors will be given a FREE copy.

For more details, please ring the KingsCare office on 01626 357090

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

'How to join the Sunday Service'

The screenshot shows the homepage of Kingsteignton Community Baptist Church. At the top right, there is a search bar and a green button labeled 'Online service' with a play icon. Below the navigation menu, a pink callout box with the text 'Click The Green Button' has a red arrow pointing to the 'Online service' button. The main content area features a warm welcome message and a notice about the suspension of activities due to Coronavirus. The right sidebar contains contact information, including email addresses, phone numbers, and links to recent sermons and the church's location.

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing
