Sunday 14th March

10:30am Worship service and Mothering Sunday

From David

It is Mother's Day next Sunday. It is an opportunity to show our appreciation for our mothers, or to remember our mums and give thanks to the Lord for them. So it is a time for celebration. And a time for remembering loss. And a time for recalling the less than perfect mothering experiences maybe. Either way, it is full of mixed emotions and I have known people who have missed attending worship to avoid the painful emotions. Please don't stay away because it is Mother's Day.

So this year, how about we abandon the modern expression of Mother's Day and bring back the mediaeval expression as a time of visiting the mother church – the church of you family origin or home church. KCBC will do. But we can't visit, you shout. But we can all celebrate what it is to be church and that is a company of God's people called to encourage each other in faith and life. Let's do it.

This week we will try to find a way that expresses that and incorporate it in our Sunday worship. To do it properly it will have to include a wider group than just mothers, so we will see what we can come up with. And on Sunday we will give thanks for one another and encourage everyone in faith and life. So be on the look out...

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other and stay connected. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in “person” this may be the way for you to encourage others. Sarah

Thank you Laura for the sharing the following song which she heard again recently and the words really helped her

*There are moments on our journey
Following the Lord
When God illumines every step we take
There are times when circumstances
Make perfect sense to us
As we try to understand each move He makes
When the path grows dim
And our questions have no answers, turn to Him*

*Bow the knee, trust the heart of your Father
When the answer goes beyond what you can see
Bow the knee lift your eyes toward heaven
And believe the One who holds eternity
And when you don't understand
The purpose of His plan
In the presence of the King
Bow the knee*

*There are days when clouds surround us
And the rain begins to fall
The cold and lonely winds won't cease to blow
And there seems to be no reason
For the suffering we feel
We are tempted to believe God does not know
When the storms arise
Don't forget we live by faith and not by sight*

*Bow the knee, trust the heart of your Father
When the answer goes beyond what you can see
Bow the knee, lift your eyes toward heaven
And believe the One who holds eternity
And when you don't understand
The purpose of His plan
In the presence of the King
Bow the knee*

The Journey from Prayers on Fire (365 Days of Praying the Psalms)

So I've learned from my experience that God protects the childlike humble ones. For I was broken and brought low, but he answered me and came to my rescue!

Psalm 116:6 The Passion Translation

Life with you has taught me many things. Most of all, I've learned how faithful you are. So many times when I was terrified and overcome with sorrow, you dried my tears. Though I asked you for the solution to my problem, you simply held me. You taught me that you alone are the answer to all of my questions and if I have you, I have all that I need.

You are so gracious, so patient. Because of your passion for me, you will always work things out in the end. This is what I must always remember and what I will share with all who listen: No matter how hard things get, even when we feel ourselves slipping into dark shadows, you are there. You never leave us.

For the rest of my days, I have this goal; to relax and rest, confident and serene. Strengthen me so that I may fully enjoy my life before you, simply trusting you.

Friday Outings are transforming into Friday Elevenses at Home. They will take place once a month on Zoom on a Friday morning at 11am, and are an opportunity for a chat. Our first session was on Friday 12th February at 11am, next dates 12th March and 23rd April. If you are interested please contact Christina Greeves or Sue Watkin (kbcscscribe@hotmail.com) who can send you the meeting link. Thanks Christina

Can you help Kingscare, you don't need to leave your home...

The Covid-19 Cookery Book Project

Submit the recipe and the photos to manager@kingscare.co.uk by 5pm on Friday 19th March.

The book will be printed in full colour and presented as an A4 ring bound edition. All contributors will be given a FREE copy.

For more details, please ring the KingsCare office on 01626 357090

Videos and photos of you... To keep us connected, how about putting together a short video (no more than 3 minutes) on what you have been doing over lockdown. You could show us something that you have grown or built, somewhere you have gone or someone you met up with. Or a pet. Or your latest car if you have changed it. I suppose it could just be a photo but a short video maybe done on your phone would be fun. The idea is to give us a window into our life at a time when we are blocked off. Think what you can do and then send it over to me or the Tech Team and I will slot it in our time together on Sundays.

'How to join the Sunday Service'

1. Go onto the internet and type kcbchurch.org.uk
2. On the Home Page (the first page with the Coronavirus statement) in the top right-hand corner is a green bar and on it is written "online service" with an arrow.
3. Click on the green bar/arrow and you'll go straight to the video.
4. Either press play or it will automatically start playing
