Word Alive

Following on from the conference this week on mental health, we ask the question, 'Does the Bible say anything about help with mental health?'

We read of spectacular physical healings and may have seen some ourselves, but what if the problem is in the mind? Lazarus was healed instantly, but this was an exorcism and this is not the problem for most people with mental health issues (or is it?) Instant healing of major mental health is so uncommon I know of no instances, not ones that deal with the problem for any length of time.

So how is a Biblical faith relevant to mental health dysfunction? What can we present from our faith that is helpful in the fight against mental health problems? What parts of the Bible do you want to pick out? And what about when it is us or close family/friend? How do we hold ourselves together we find it hard to hope for a quick cure?

Did you know that there are now Fairtrade Easter eggs which include a leaflet on the REAL meaning of Easter available from Choice Words in Newton Abbot.

A really good way of reminding people what Easter is all about.

We are going to run an Alpha Course at KCBC in the Autumn. But what is it?

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each talk looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation. Alpha is run all around the globe, and everyone's welcome. It runs in cafés, churches, universities, homes—you name it. No two Alphas look the same, but generally they have three key things in common: food, a talk and good conversation. Pray about whether this is something you could be a part of - or maybe come as a guest and explore faith for yourself.

We will be running a 10 week Alpha, Monday evenings, starting at 7:00 with food. Opening night - September 9th. If you would like to be involved in any way please talk to David

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

Last week in my bible notes Jeff Lucas said “Scripture repeatedly tells us that we are greatly loved by God, but how easily we forget. The words of love no longer move us. Or we tend to think of God’s love generally, for the world rather than the truth that He loves us, specifically, right now, as we are.”

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement or that you are thankful for that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other. Sarah
