

Fix our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

From the Minister

After all our Easter celebrations, where do we go from there? From a dramatic Good Friday to a packed out Easter Sunday, we were able to draw close to God through our worship and finish with the glory of the Resurrection. So what did the apostles do after the Resurrection?

It took them a while to let it all sink in, then let Jesus help them piece together what that meant for the way forward. And once it had sunk in, it was time to let it out so that others could come in. So for us.

We look forward to the two big events that KCBC will be involved with. The first will be TryPraying, and then the Ram Fair. So we take the encouragement of Easter to equip us to bring the news of the Risen Christ to those outside the churches.

David

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage, or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others.

I was encouraged by the following from my "Life with Lucas" studies, Jeff says, ".....There's the two on the road to Emmaus. I love the thought that in a sense they were walking in the wrong direction. As soon as they realised the wonderful truth, they turned around and headed back to Jerusalem immediately – but during their seven mile walk, going the wrong way, Jesus walked with them.

That picture encourages me. Even when we get off the right path, we're not deserted. That is surely of special encouragement to those of us who love someone currently living a prodigal life, away from God. Whatever road they are on, God can meet them...."

KCBC Zoom quiz

We are pleased to invite you to the next round of the KCBC virtual quiz. Pull up a chair, grab a cuppa (or a glass of something you fancy) and join us on Saturday 27th April at 7:30pm. This month Nick will be Quiz Master.

Various rounds from General Knowledge, Picture, History, and many others! - so, there is something for everyone. No child specific round but we try and make sure that this isn't too high brow, and the youngsters should be able to take part as well.

All you need to take part is a team name (which you can use to rename your Zoom session), some paper, pens and a device with internet access using Zoom such as a tablet, laptop, or phone, simple! We will open the Zoom session at 7:20pm so that we can kick off as close as possible to 7:30pm and probably wind up shortly before 9pm.

One of the dances we did in Golden Lion Square in Newton Abbot as part of the Christians Together Walk of Witness. Helen Hillard and I were part of the group, and the picture shows us dancing to Light of the World.

Janet

We pray for peace in our world

God of all peoples and nations,
Who created all things alive and breathing.

United and whole, show us the way of peace that is Your overwhelming presence.

We hold before you the peoples of Ukraine and Russia, of Israel and Palestine and all those places where there is currently conflict.

Every child and every adult.

We long for the time when weapons of war are beaten into ploughshares, when nations no longer lift up sword against nation.

We cry out to you for peace.

Protect those who only desire and deserve to live in security and safety

Comfort those who fear for their lives and the lives of their loved ones

Be with those who are bereaved.

Change the hearts of those set on violence and aggression

And fill leaders with the wisdom that leads to peace.

Kindle again in us a love of our neighbour,

And a passion for justice to prevail and a renewed recognition that we all play a part in peace.

Creator of all hear our prayer and bring us peace.

Make us whole.

Amen

Our second truck of the year left Exmouth last week and has safely arrived in Moldova. Our truck, crammed to the roof as usual, has now been unloaded ready for distribution. Our thanks to all our wonderful supporters who provide the goods, the money and the energy to sort and load everything.

We are all now very busy gathering more humanitarian aid for the next lorry bound for Ukraine.

Thank you for your ongoing support, as one of the ministers said, "You are not just giving us aid you are giving us hope and reminding us that someone cares!"

Nick and Sarah took another car full up to the warehouse on Wednesday including two guitars!

If you would like further information or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be only too pleased to hear from you.

St Michaels Parent Volunteer

Due to poor attendance at the parent support group at St. Michaels School, Natalie is now going into the school on a Monday afternoon for 2 hours as a parent volunteer.

She is attached to a year one class, 5- and 6-year-olds, listening to them reading. On average she has 7 children on her reading list. God has opened this new door and Natalie continues to value your prayers.

Kingsteignton Town Council's Community Coffee Morning

Feel free to pop in for a FREE tea, coffee, and cake so that we can: hear how things are in your local area; help you get a little more company if you'd like; have the chance to meet other residents and generally be more accessible to you. There will be some simple activities for children to get involved with and we would love to see all generations mixing together and getting to know one another!
