This week's Word Alive

Welcome back after our August break. Word Alive returns this Sunday evening at 7:30 at our place.

Our theme is practical methods of Conflict Resolution.

The last two sessions were looking at Biblical conflicts and principles.

We will finish with the practical.

If you have been unable to attend the last two meetings, this won't affect what we will do this Sunday. Come along and join in with what should be a great opportunity to brush up on what is a major Biblical theme.

If you have any encouragement you would like included in the newsletter or you know of other events, or changes to our programme, please let me know, I would rather be told twice than not at all. If I don't know about it I can't put it in the newsletter!

Thank you Sarah

Invitation to Prayer from the "Prayer Ministry team"

We believe that God is calling us to spend more time in prayer as individuals, in small groups and as a church so....

- At 10am each Sunday before the service members of the Prayer Ministry team and the Worship Group pray together upstairs in the Sunday school room. This prayer time is open to everyone, so please come and join us, we would love to see as many as possible at this meeting.

God Bless

The Prayer Ministry Team

Just a thought from George W Standing

Because your love is better than life,

my lips will glorify you.

I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands. Psalm 63:3,4

There is no better time to praise God than now; praise never comes easy when we are struggling with problems. David wrote this 63rd Psalm in the wilderness when fleeing from some pursuers bent on taking his life. When stuck in the confusion of life's maze, praise God who knows and understands all about it.
