Max Appeal!

The Oddy family donated an instrument to be raffled in aid of the Max Appeal!

<http://www.maxappeal.org.uk/about/> yesterday at a music festival yesterday.

The charity was chosen by Patrick and Claire, they said, "It's a charity that supports those with the genetic condition 22q11.2 deletion syndrome. This is the condition that Rebecca has been diagnosed with, Eleanor probably had (the heart condition she had is a common feature).

This isn't a charity about baby loss, but about a condition that relates to us all as a family. Without Eleanor, we would never had even heard of it!"

A collection box will be available at church next week for anyone who would like to make a donation (if you are not in church next week and would like to make a donation please contact Nick or Sarah directly).

Many thanks

PLEASE NOTE:

Next week's notices will be the last one before the Summer Holidays so if you have anything you would like included please get it to me by 5pm on Wednesday 17th July. Many thanks. Sarah

“Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

These are the lyrics for a song entitled “He’s been in my shoes” based on Hebrews 2: 18, 4: 15, heard it again yesterday, and felt it was something I need to remember every day...

Here in my hour of need
I am lonely, forsaken again
I'm wounded and left here to bleed
With no solace from a stranger or friend
Who hears my cry to revive and restore
One who has been here before
He's been in my shoes
Been down this road before
He's been tested too
He's been through this door
He feels the pain and He heals the bruise
He's been in my shoes
He's been in my shoes
The Union of God in a man
Is a mystery that I can't understand
But now with my suffering known
I'm reminded that I'm never alone
Who has been tried and been tempted this way?
Jesus who now hears me pray
He was a man just like me
But He lived His life blamelessly
Now I'm beginning to see
He holds my hand
He understands

Do you have a bible verse, poem, passage or song etc. that has been of encouragement that you would like to share? If so please let me know so that I can include it in the newsletter and we can all encourage each other. Thanks. Sarah
