From the minister...

I feel like a bit of an imposter being here. That was a sentence I heard a number of times last week at the SWBA Ministers' conference at Lee Abbey. Such conferences were a bit of an old boys' reunion when I first attended these and we have come a long way. But still people felt on the outside.

How much more so in our churches? And how about you? Are you one of the in-crowd, utterly at home in church, or feeling you are not really worthy enough to be part of all this. So you try to join in, but somehow you have that impostor feeling. If only people knew who you really are, on the inside, well – they would agree. Impostor.

Maybe we will always feel a bit of that impostor thing. Yet the Gospel shows that is not true at all. At the cross the barrier was torn down, death was defeated. Because of Jesus we are invited in to be part of the body of Christ – His church. It is totally unfair, of course. We don't merit that. Such is the gift of the Lord.

An impostor? You have been found out. And then welcomed. So you can't hide now and hopefully don't want to. Draw near to Jesus through this Easter.

David

The Alpha Course

Are you interested in doing the Alpha Course? If enough people are interested, we may be able to hold one after Easter. If it is only a few, we can hold it in a home. If more, we will go to a larger venue. What we need to know now is your interest. If you would like to try the Alpha Course at KCBC, please let David or one of the leadership team know. From there we can plan.

Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice,
we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.
We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.
We pray for those with power over war or peace,
for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.
Above all, we pray for all your precious children,
at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace.
Amen

Archbishop Justin Welby & Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

We hear so many negative things these days, indeed we suffered only a few weeks ago when our store was broken into.

The support for our charity is amazing, people who so willingly give - allowing us to help so many in Ukraine and Moldova.

Just three weeks since our truck left for Ukraine we were again in Exmouth loading another huge lorry filled to the roof.

So many have been fantastic and generous with their time and effort.

Thank you all.

Hugh

Nick took another car and trailer full of donations to the warehouse in Exmouth on Wednesday. Thank you so much for your ongoing support.

The warehouse is open the first Wednesday of each month and we hope to go up with a load each month so our next visit will be on the 3rd May. Our main collection day will be on Sunday 30th April but we are happy to receive items at any time. If you would like any more information or have anything to donate please talk to Nick or Sarah

A good time was had by all at the Games Afternoon many thanks to the Social Events Team for organising it.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

We need to encourage each other. Do you have a Bible verse, poem, passage or song or any of the following? Something you are thankful for. Something that has made you laugh. If you have found something online that would be a good resource for us, please share. If you don't feel comfortable sharing in "person" this may be the way for you to encourage others.

Sarah

Hi all,

If you are in need of devotional inspiration I would like to offer you

<https://www.thefuelcast.com/library/>

This should take you to the first of the Fuelcast short daily videos for Lent. The first one is my Principal, Steve and the following ones are my lecturers, friends, peers and me. Even taking that into account, they are really good and the library is huge and worth exploring (also several more from me!). If you sign up, they will go straight to your email inbox. Rose

Linking Lives Update

Word is spreading among the social prescribers and other NHS agencies and we now have one proper referral and a few promised referrals in.

What I am noticing is that there is more interest in face to face visiting than phone calls. Please have a think and a pray about whether you have the capacity and the compassion to share an hour a week or so with someone in need of some friendly company.

Remember, there are some really clear boundaries around what you are expected to do and full training is a requirement so you won't go in ill-equipped.

Please come and ask if you have any questions or would like to get involved. Rose
