CHURCH MATTERS

Personal Data Verification - Church Social List

A couple of weeks ago I emailed everyone an invite to an online tool that I am are using to verify our personal details in preparation for a release of a new version of the church social list.

I have just resent the email to those that haven't responded. I would be grateful if you would complete the online form to verify your personal details.

Nick - Church Secretary

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

John 13:34-35

At our last Church Members meeting the members were presented with a review report of the "small group" activities in KCBC during 2026.

I have been posting in here sections of that report for the wider church community to see.

This week, here is a report from Darren about the Worship Team

Worship Team

Darren Graydon

As the church will be aware, we have several singers and a variety of musicians in the worship team. This year has seen Becci March join the existing team. Some of our youth are still involved in the team, although illness sadly prevented some of them from taking part in the candles by candlelight service. This varied team is something we are grateful for. We are also grateful for some new bits of equipment over the last year or so, and for a PA specialist who recently came to help fix some of our PA issues.

It is a privilege to be able to use our gifts to bring music to the services and contribute to the church's worship in this way. Leading worship keeps us working at our musical skills and keeps us looking to what God is doing in our church life, in our church family and in our own lives. It is always encouraging to see how God's Spirit has led us in preparing songs and themes that align with what the other contributors to the service have been led to bring. We have also learned some new songs this year, which we think will bless the church for the time to come.

Our hope for the coming year is that we will be able to establish a good variety of worship leaders each Sunday, and seek to continue to teach the church new songs that will help us express our love, joy, praise and gratitude to God, whilst also drawing close to Him in the darker and more challenging places. We would like to explore more ways to engage with God and edify the church through our times of sung worship.

Christian Response to Eastern Europe

Message from Hugh at cr2ee

As we mark four years since the war in Ukraine began, we pause to reflect on the resilience, courage, and humanity that have defined this time. What began as an urgent response to unfolding tragedy has become a sustained commitment, a promise that we would stand alongside the people of Ukraine for as long as we are needed. Four years on, that promise remains unshaken.

Since those first days, articulated lorries filled with medical supplies and essential aid have made their long journeys eastward, carrying not only practical support but also a message: you are not forgotten. Alongside this, tens of thousands of pounds have been sent each month to help internal refugees, displaced families, and those facing poverty and uncertainty. Every box packed, every mile travelled, every pound given represents compassion in action.

None of this would be possible without the extraordinary generosity of our supporters here at home. To everyone who has donated, fundraised, given time, offered skills, or simply encouraged us along the way, we thank you. Your kindness has turned concern into practical help and hope.

We are equally grateful to our dedicated volunteers who faithfully sort, pack, organise, and load, often behind the scenes and without recognition. Your steady commitment, week after week, is the quiet engine that keeps this work moving forward.

Above all, we hold in deep admiration the people of Ukraine; those who continue to defend their homeland, and those who remain to care for families, neighbours, and communities under the most challenging circumstances. Their courage in the face of hardship, their determination to protect their freedom, and their refusal to lose hope inspire us daily.

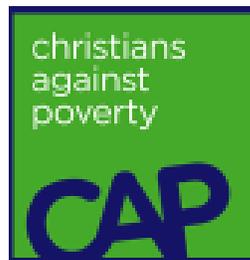

As we remember these four years of suffering and strength, we recommit ourselves to standing in solidarity. Together, through compassion and perseverance, we will continue to bring practical help, and a reminder that even in the darkest times, humanity endures. Hugh

The next cr2ee prayer & update meeting will be held on 16th March and is attended by members of KCBC. Information to share, will be found in future editions of the newsletter.

If you would like to know more about the ongoing prayer requests or answers to prayer please ask Sarah. If you would like further information about cr2ee or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be very pleased to hear from you.

"and if you spend yourselves on behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your light will become like the noonday."

KCBC FELLOWSHIP TOGETHER

Lord, we remember the depth of your love for us, and we repent of our half-hearted discipleship.

We have been called to deny ourselves:

forgive us for putting self-interest before the interests of your kingdom;

forgive us that Christ's Lordship in our hearts has been challenged by our ambition, our appetites, our desires, and our needs;

forgive us for the times when self-interest hindered our care for others.

Lord, we have been called to carry a cross:

forgive us for complaining when it has weighed heavily upon us;

forgive us that, having received so much, we have sacrificed so little;

forgive us for the limits we have set to Christian love;

forgive us that we have settled for mediocrity, resisting the fire and passion of Christ's love upon the cross.

AMEN

"But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Saviour from there, the Lord Jesus Christ," Philippians 3:20

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share
