From the Minister

In our electronics lab (by this I mean old building with temporary offices shoehorned in) we had a corner where bits and pieces were put. Old products, useful bits, salvaged junk. It was great when something broke down and you needed an obsolete component but the problem was, where is it? We had one person who just knew where, in the tangle of spent parts, it would be. We were a bit lost when he retired.

At KCBC, people do ask me if I have certain resources. If we have them, I usually know where to find them. I do not want you to be at a loss finding them so I have opened – The Library. By library, I mean the shelf in the first cupboard in our storerooms on the left-hand shelf nearest to the door. It may not be grand, but it is a library to us. You are all free to browse the resources and borrow them. Here's what you will find.

In The Library are various course materials, such as Alpha, The Marriage Course, The Expedition, Bible Society tour of the Bible, Freedom in Christ and 101 Essentials. There are also things like SoF music books and other things that maybe useful for worship or homegroups.

There is also the Digital Library. I have prepared a vast array of resources including much that is needed for all those courses, photographs of our times together and historical things. For those leading worship, there are a full set of resources and PowerPoints to draw on. The Digital Library will be on the new church laptop, and any resources may be transferred to you for your use (subject to any copyrights that apply). I pray they will help support your ongoing life and ministry.

David

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

The Friday Outings restart this month, and the destination for 26th September is Deo Gloria Coffee Shop in Newton Abbot, the old Ridgways Shoe Shop. A table has been reserved for our party from 10:30am - they serve nice coffee & cakes, and a small selection of savoury items.

As Mary & Steve are unable to attend this time, please direct any questions this month to Rob. All are very welcome.

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share kbcscscribe@hotmail.com

From the Leadership Team - Fellowship Ministry - Communion - As they take a step back, we thank Gaye & Mike for their ministry in providing the Communion table at our worship services over the past few years. Going forward we believe that it would be helpful to have a team of providers on a rota basis and so we are asking if you would like to sign up to the team. As you are no doubt aware, Communion falls on the first and third Sunday of the month and if we are able to have a team of half a dozen or so, you would only be needed once every couple of months.

So, what is required: a loaf of bread, cut into bite size pieces; laying up the Communion Table and finally, clearing away following the service. It will also be necessary to ensure that for the next service there are supplies of Grape Juice and Rice Crackers (someone from leadership will restock as required) and to launder the tablecloths as required. As Nick said in last week's service he has the sign-up sheet for anyone who has a heart for a heart for this Ministry. Thank you.

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" Isaiah 41:10

Heavenly Father,

Author of life, creator of all that is seen and unseen we give you our thanks and praise. You Lord, are our great redeemer, our guiding light along dark and uncertain paths, our great hope both in times of plenty and times of hardship, the one who loves us with a deep and abiding love for all the ages, and who are we? We are all of humanity, the light, the darkness, the salt, the destroyer, the believer, the unfaithful and yet you love us and we, your children, cry out in thankfulness. Lord, we know that there are so many problems in this world of our own doing and of the evil one, so we come to you and ask your forgiveness and your guidance to rise up against those who would do your children harm. We are sorry Lord for when we mess up, speak foolishly and act improperly but through your grace and mercy when we confess our sins and failures with a pure heart, you forgive us.

In all of the busyness of life we are thankful that you remain at the centre of all things, you do not let go, give up on us, or forget us. Knowing this Lord we can stand firm on your rock, declare your name as the Lord Almighty and be a vibrant member of the body of Christ.

Thank you Lord for your Son, our Saviour, in whose name we pray.

AMEN

Christian Response to Eastern Europe

Recently, another humanitarian aid lorry packed to the roof departed for Ukraine. Thank you to everyone who has contributed towards this. We have sufficient aid for our next lorry, nevertheless, there is much to be done over the next three weeks when we hope the next truck will leave. Please pray for a safe journey and for all those receiving the aid that it brings them hope and reminds them that they are not forgotten that people care but most of all they are loved by God.

Nick and Sarah took the first five of the bikes (and a carload of other donations) from KCBC to the warehouse.

If you would like further information about cr2ee or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be only too pleased to hear from you.

Here is a selection of photographs taken from the loading - just starting, half-way(?) through, and nearly there!

There is still so much happening in Moldova and Ukraine that needs our prayers and our thankfulness. If you would like to know more about the ongoing prayer requests or answers to prayer please ask Sarah. If you would like further information about cr2ee or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be only too pleased to hear from you.

CAP Teignbridge offers free debt help, practical & emotional support, and to show people that there is always hope. Working in partnership with local churches across Teignbridge, we help to lift the weight of debt from your shoulders.
