*Dear friends, since God so loved us, we ought to love one another.
No-one has ever seen God; but if we love
one another,
God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.
1 John 4:11-12*

From the Deacons

Here is the promised update from the leadership meeting which was held on the 10th of November.

We are pleased to announce that a Prayer Team is in the final stages of planning. Guidelines have been written and a meeting will be held with the team next week with a view to being available from Sunday 23rd of November. A further update will be made in the next newsletter. For more information please contact Sarah or Jeni who are coordinating the team.

The Pastoral Care Team is more involved, but we are making progress and hope to give you further details in the near future.

We have received constructive feedback on the recent Sunday services which we discussed and we will be addressing some of the issues raised.

We will soon have a new mobile number which will be on the website and will give improved access to a Deacon.

Work is about to take place on refreshing our policies following the departure of David.

We have agreed to a free trial of a new app that will be a useful tool to help with the administration and communication for KCBC. We will let you know the outcome of this.

No safeguarding issues were reported.

The issues with the sound system have been resolved.

And finally, we have started planning for the Christmas services.

As always, we are happy to receive your questions or feedback.

Every blessing the Deacons

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect

Local Charity Information

The lorries containing the Christmas Shoeboxes will be the final transportation for 2025. The supply of clothing is dwindling so if you do have anything that you would like to pass on for further use, please do put it aside and bring along to church for future donation runs. Please pray, when the lorries are ready to depart, for safe passage and timely arrival in Moldova & Ukraine. We pray the Christmas Shoeboxes will be a blessing to those who receive them. We give thanks to all those at Exmouth faced with the mammoth task of preparing everything for departure.

Just a reminder that there is now a special need for camp beds (anything that is collapsible and transportable) for field hospitals, together with sleeping bags. There is still so much happening in Moldova and Ukraine that needs our prayers and our thankfulness.

If you would like further information about cr2ee, prayer needs or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be only too pleased to hear from you.

In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

KCBC FELLOWSHIP TOGETHER

Life-giving God, by your Spirit you brought creation out of chaos and gave life to the world.

Now you sustain all things and still you give life to the lifeless.

You have found us and changed us, awoken us and inspired us.

You have given us new life in Jesus Christ:

you have wooed us in love and created love within us.

God our creator, redeemer and sustainer, we give you thanks and praise.

Amen

Prayer taken from BU Gathering for Worship

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share

KCBC's Friday Outing - 21st November -

The Group will be meeting at Jack's Patch, 1030hrs, for fellowship and delicious cake! If you would like more information or need to get a lift, please do contact Steve & Mary who are happy to help.

KILTS Christmas Crafts! - Thank you to those who have volunteered to make the Christmas Crafts for KILTS this year. We are very appreciative of the time you give to these projects each year. If you are making Candles, please would you bring them along to Church by 23rd November, there's a bit of respite for the Gingerbread Men as we do not need those until 7th December. Thank you very much from the KILTS' Team.

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all sin.

Following the presentation which Alan gave for Remembrance, he wishes to share this poignant Poem.

THE FINAL INSPECTION

The soldier stood and faced God,
Which must always come to pass.
He hoped his shoes were shining,
Just as brightly as his brass.

'Step forward now, you soldier.
How shall I deal with you?
Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My Church have you been true?'

The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
'No Lord, I guess I ain't.
Because those of us who carry guns,
Can't always be a saint.

I've had to work most Sundays,
And at times my talk was tough.
And sometimes I've been violent,
Because the world is awfully rough.

But I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep
Though I worked a lot of overtime,
When the bills got just too steep.

And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.
And sometimes, God, forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.

I know I don't deserve a place,
Among the people here,
They never wanted me around,
Except to calm their fears.

If you've a place for me here, Lord,
It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,
But if you don't, I'll understand'.

There was a silence all around the throne,
Where the saints had often trod.
As the soldier waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.

'Step forward now, you soldier,
You've borne your burdens well ..
Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets,
You've done your time in Hell.'

Although this poem is listed as written by an unknown author, on some sites it is attributed to Sgt Joshua Helterbran, US Serviceman

On behalf of all of the team at THAT Foodbank, I wanted to take this opportunity to say a massive thank you for your harvest donation that was received at the Foodbank on 6th October 2025.

All of your wonderful donations will help to support individuals and families, not just in Newton Abbot, but across the whole of the Teignbridge District.

We want to thank you for your generosity and hope that you will continue to support us in the future. If you would like any more information about our work, and how you can get involved, please let us know and we will be happy to discuss this with you.

Thank you once again,
 Joe Downes
