CHURCH MATTERS

Speakers' Corner!

I am KCBC Treasurer, married to Tricia and a recently retired professor. I was brought up in a Christian family in Leicester, came to faith in my teens and have been a dedicated follower of Jesus ever since. I've had the privilege of serving the Lord in many roles in the local church including deacon, elder and church secretary. I've also supported numerous students and academic colleagues over the years, seeking to model the love of Christ in the learning environment and the workplace.

David B

This Sunday we are exploring one of the most important qualities in our lives that shape the way we face the future: hope.

Not the everyday "I hope so" kind of wishful thinking, but the solid, biblical confidence that God is in control. We'll look at what Christian hope really means, how it affects our lives, and how God grows it in us - often through the very challenges we would rather avoid. As Romans 5 shows, God uses suffering to build perseverance, perseverance to shape character, and character to give birth to hope.

Wherever you find yourself today, be it facing problems, learning patience, or growing in faith, God invites you to take the next step on His pathway to hope.

KCBC FELLOWSHIP TOGETHER

Father God, we give thanks for your faithful provision and for being the source of every good thing in our lives.

Even in seasons of uncertainty, you remain constant, steady in love, rich in mercy, and present in every moment. Your love surrounds us like a shelter in a storm, reminding us that we are never abandoned or forgotten. Help us to silence the noise and distractions around us, so we can recognize your voice. Teach us to listen with open hearts through prayer, through your Word, and through the gentle prompting of the Holy Spirit. Grant us, we pray, discernment to know when you are leading, courage to obey even when the path is unfamiliar, and trust to follow wherever and whenever You call us.

Lord, strengthen us to confidently walk in faith, using every gift, talent, and opportunity you have placed within our hands. Remind us that you have already equipped us to serve, encourage, and uplift your people in the communities around us. Let our words carry compassion, our actions reflect kindness, and our presence bring hope to those who are hurting or overlooked. Help us step outside of our fear and comfort zone, so we can become vessels of your love in practical ways each day. As we interact with others, may we truly see them through your eyes and respond with grace, patience, and humility just as Jesus taught us. Lead us to be a light in our communities, workplaces, and families, showing others the same unconditional love and faithfulness you continually pour onto us.

AMEN

"If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

Romans 10:8

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share
