From the Minister

15 years ago I joined KCBC for my first time as minister – at the Ram Fair. A great way to start, church and community mashed together. The church in the market place. A bit scary and a bit exposed but that is how church is meant to be. It is part of following Jesus, who did not hide in religious buildings but went where the people were and engaged with them.

You might not know quite what to do at the Ram Fair but sign up and come along anyway. You can ask Richard or myself for a heads up on what you can do, or you can simply turn up and there will be plenty of people to direct you.

As we do this we know it is a step of faith. We go ahead with our trust in the Lord to take us and use us to be His representatives at the Ram Fair. And amongst all that, pray that you may have contacts and conversations with people that bring Jesus' Kingdom down here on earth, even at the Ram Fair.

Church Forum - Update

Thank you to everyone who attended the church forum. We hope that this was a time useful to you and has given you some idea of the discussions and challenges that lie ahead of us.

As was said it will give us all an opportunity to engage in what will be an exciting and interesting few months.

We do have a set of notes from the meeting but don't intend to email those out, however if you were not there, or there was something in the meeting that you want clarified, please talk to any of the deacons.

This is a first step, of course, and we plan to have other events as a congregation and in membership meetings and of course we will soon start to meet in small groups as part of the What the Spirit is Saying process.

KCBC Deacons

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

Steve and I made a return trip to Budleigh Salterton, and I wondered whether the Prayer Cairn was still there and I was so pleased to see that yes it was! The cairn was created by Rev Wayne Grewcock, on 18th March 2020 and there are still wonderful messages to read on some of the pebbles – the one that particularly caught my eye was decorated with a tower and “The Lord is my Refuge”. Such a lovely place to stop, right at the sea’s edge, to be still in God’s presence and enjoy the wonder of his creation. Sue

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you’d like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along – a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share kbcscscribe@hotmail.com

If you are seeking ways to serve God and the church, want to learn more about our God, participate on a course, or join prayer gatherings look no further than the Baptist Union of Great Britain and/or SWBA websites, both of which have a Calendar of Events to peruse. Follow either of these links: www.baptist.org.uk or www.swbaptists.org.uk if you would like to know more.

"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" Isaiah 41:10

Adonai, My tears flow as I remember the outpouring of love you showed to the whole world as you suffered and died for my sins and those same tears fall as tears of joy for the miracle of Easter as you rose from the grave and conquered death. You won the victory, so I may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

Thank you for the hope given to me, and to those who live in fear, to those who are sick, to those who know only violence, to those who live in poverty and hunger, to those whose souls are burdened, and to those who are still seeking. Your arms stretched wide to envelop the whole world in your embrace and only you were able to bring me back into relationship with the Living God.

May I keep my eyes fixed on the way, the truth and the life, may my lamp burn brightly in anticipation of your arrival, and may I be ever vigilant as I wait, wait on you Lord so that I am ready when you call me by name.

In the precious name of my Almighty Saviour, Amen
