CHURCH MATTERS

Guest Speaker – Colin Opie who is bringing part 3 of his teachings on Titus

Just a short reminder... Colin is a youthful old codger who quit his secular career in March 2018 and somehow or other, by the grace of God, ended up being ordained as a Baptist Minister. He is currently the Associate Pastor at Brixham Baptist and a commissioned Chaplain ("Bish") to the Sea Cadets.

He's married to an immensely patient Jill, has two sons, and leisure time is nowadays split between DIY, motorhome, walking, grandchildren and motorcycling. He is apparently often found eating something!

Verses to live by: Philippians 3:7-14.

"And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers."

Acts 2:42

From the Duty Deacon

Our Psalmists' Group is rapidly approaching its 6th Anniversary! We started in lockdown with, of course, the Psalms thinking that would probably see us through the situation and maybe that would be it. But as we began to study and delve deeper into God's rich words, we were assaulted by so many "wow" moments, "I don't remember reading this before", "did you find Jesus in that text?", that it stopped being something that could get us through a moment in time and has continued to richly bless us 6 years on. Old or New Testament, short or long Books, should we.... Numbers?? And, oh yes we did, Numbers really wow, what a book! Discernment has become a watchword; there's generally a song to be found!; there's joy at sharing with each other - when we have chosen the same verses God is obviously teaching us communally, when we choose different verses, a moment when God needs us to see or seek something individually, and there's always something to learn!

So why, share this? Studying God's word everyday alone can focus us, will definitely teach us, help us to grow and guide us but studying together, in a small group, a Home Group or with a friend, blesses us even more, remember "for where two or three gather in my name..." So, why not give thought to starting your own "Psalmists", or seek out a Home Group, the joy and fellowship it can bring is God's treasure to us, a treasure we can seek, find and keep to build us up and bring us ever closer to our Saviour.

"Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near."

Revelation 1:3

Sue

If you would like to start up a new Home Group, please do speak with a member of the Leadership should you require any assistance.

BMS

You will all be aware that a portion of our giving goes to supporting the BMS World Mission which is a Christian mission organisation, working in over 30 countries on four continents, to help people experience fullness of life in Jesus Christ.

Currently as a church we don't have a BMS rep but it would be really good if we did.

Our friends Monty & Lorraine Wills are the BMS reps for Barton Baptist and I asked them how it blesses them...

"Faith builders of KCBC

Are you a Jesus follower who wants to share the stories of what God is doing around the world? Knowing what is happening beyond the immediate church community is an encouragement and faith builder.

As a church representative for BMS World Mission you will receive excellent resources to help you share the work they do. As church you can choose link missionaries and distribute the regular prayer letters. Points for prayer and information can be shared in the news sheet. BMS World Mission are very supportive of the church reps and provide comprehensive information to get you started.

Being partners with those who called to serve overseas is a humbling privilege.

Go on give it a go, you will be blessed."

If you would like to be KCBC's BMS rep please talk to the Leadership.

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOXES

Yes, it is approaching that time of year! So, if you would like to take part, we need your shoeboxes by Sunday 25th October

Each shoebox should ideally contain:

- 1 pair of mittens or gloves;
- warm hat;
- scarf;
- notebook and pen/pencils/erasure/sharpener/colouring pencils;
- toothpaste and toothbrush;
- soap and face cloth (hand wash is great but no shower gel or shampoo)
- a doing toy (skipping rope or ball);
- soft toy; and
- sweets/chocolate/biscuits.

Then it's up to you: but please ensure the box is well packed (to prevent movement on the journey and subsequent damage) a colouring book, a jumper or other clothing item, a ball can be added. The main difference is that for an adult you could include a liquid soap instead of a bar of soap, comb or hairbrush, a sewing kit, hand cream, small packets of tissues and make-up or nail varnish (especially for teenage girls). You don't need to include a soft toy/doll.

No Jars of coffee, loose teabags and tins of food, drugs or plasters, no packs of cards or reading material as most don't speak English

All items should be new, in date by at least 6 months and age appropriate.

Nothing within the shoebox should be wrapped and the box itself needs to be wrapped in a way that it can be opened to check the contents.

Please put a sticker on the outside to specify the age and sex of the intended recipient.

If you cannot do a full shoebox, please could you provide any of the suitable items listed, which can then be used to make up boxes.

Thank you so much for all your support.

If you would like to know more about the ongoing prayer requests or answers to prayer, please ask Sarah. If you would like further information about cr2ee or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be very pleased to hear from you.

KCBC FELLOWSHIP TOGETHER

Father God, Thank you for ensuring that, alongside the Good News and many acts of faith in action, you also provide guidance on how to equip ourselves to deal with false teachers. As we listen to the news and see events unfolding around the world, we can acknowledge that there are many who are only using your name and Jesus' teachings to serve their own ends, to justify their sinful actions, greed and disdain for your children. Help us to be more compassionate when we speak with people who say they believe and yet go against those teachings, give us the words, patience and care to speak justly with mercy and humbly without alienating them. When we see acts of injustice may the Spirit embolden us to speak out or stand up for what is right and just in your eyes, do not allow us to be onlookers no matter how uncomfortable we feel - you promised never to leave us, that you have a plan and a purpose for our life, we pray that we live these truths.

Father God, we pray your perfect peace will move among the nations, and that men and women of great faith will rise up to lead us away from what is harmful. We pray that as we walk with Jesus, he continues to be our greatest example every day of our lives. In his precious name,

AMEN

Be Inspired...

“No child of God sins to that degree as to make himself incapable of forgiveness.”

John Bunyon - English Writer & Non-Conformist Preacher, best known as author of The Pilgrim's Progress

From time to time, we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share kbcbscribe@hotmail.com
