CHURCH MATTERS

Our speaker this week is Rich ...

Most of you will know Rich already, he's generally to be found either behind the laptop running Zoom and PowerPoint, out with the Eagles, or running around after the service with the children and youngsters.

It's fair to say that he's never been too concerned about "acting his age", although he does sometimes feel that he misses out on conversations with adults.

After a few years in Norfolk, Rich grew up (in a manner of speaking) in Totnes, and loves the outdoors Devon lifestyle, enjoying cycling, swimming, hiking and running.

Rich was very involved in life at Totnes United Free Church, and with Christians Together in Totnes, running Alpha courses and other events with all the churches working together.

A year after marrying Cheryl, having moved to Newton Abbot, they found a home at KCBC and have loved supporting, and being

A reflection...

When faced with many demands upon our time, it can be difficult to say ‘no’ without feeling guilty, especially when we know others depend upon us. I don't believe God intended for us to meet every request at the expense of our own well-being, peace, or relationship with Him, after all God makes it known that He rested after His work of creation: “so on the seventh day he rested from all his work”. We read often in the Gospels of how Jesus withdrew from others, in Luke - that although great crowds gathered to hear Him and be healed, “Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed”. The Gospel passages teach us a powerful lesson - being needed by others does not mean we must always be available to them.

Jesus had so much compassion for everyone, but he made time to be alone with His Father. If our Saviour recognised the importance of withdrawing from the crowd, perhaps we can give ourselves permission to pause, rest, pray, and renew our strength, without feeling that we have failed anyone.

We need to recognise godly responsibility from the guilt that comes from trying to please everyone. We are taught in Ecclesiastes 3 that there is a time for everything, including “a time to be silent and a time to speak”, perhaps that also includes saying ‘no’? And, by saying no, it does not mean we lack love; sometimes it means we are exercising wisdom, being discerning, and recognising our limitations. Jesus invites us in Matthew 11:28, “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.” So, why don’t we seek God’s guidance before committing ourselves and set healthy boundaries without feeling guilty. We honour God not only through our service, but also through our obedience, rest, and willingness to trust Him with the things we cannot do.

Christian Response to Eastern Europe

So much is going on BUT we can make a difference.

Moldova

Prayer points

- ▶ Unlike the UK there has been plenty of rain, so the harvest is looking good. We give thanks and pray that the people will have more food over the winter, this year.
- ▶ We give thanks that we were able to support the Summer Clubs and that they were a real success, a time for being children with fun, laughter, good healthy food and Christian teaching. The rest of their 3-month summer school break is spent in the fields helping their families.
- ▶ Many children cannot read or write and are trapped in poverty, like Alisa who is now aged 11 and has to care for her younger siblings, during the summer she received one to one teaching. We pray that this will start to make a difference on her life and for others like her.
- ▶ We pray for Katya (a single mother) who has taken Andrea (a severely disabled girl) into her home and heart, give thanks for the progress Andrea is now making. We pray for the many disabled children in Moldova, the forgotten.
- ▶ We pray for the work we are doing to provide the first special educational needs classroom in Moldova; progress is being made but it is slow and the need is great.

▶ We pray for Romir (12) who we found begging for food in Belti, we have offered help to his large family - there are 10 children living in two rooms with no inside plumbing. Dad works but cannot afford to feed his family or improve the situation. This is just one example of a family living in poverty.

- ▶ Many parents live abroad (where they can earn more) and send money back to their eldest children who then must look after their siblings with little or no support. Please pray for girls like Elina who is 16 and looking after her family.
- ▶ We give thanks for our partner churches who, with CR2EE's support, are able to minister both spiritually and physically to so many.

Ukraine Poverty and War – War is not a headline it's a way of life!

Prayer Points

- ▶ The number of dead and injured is increasing each day with little or no support for the widows or the severely injured soldiers once they leave hospital.
- ▶ We pray for the disabled of Ukraine who find getting help almost impossible, that we can find ways to help them.
- ▶ We pray for the wives and families of the soldiers like Katya and her two children. Her husband was posted to the front line four years ago and rarely got to see his children. He has now been posted closer to home so can sometimes get back. However, the family he left has changed and he struggles to communicate with his 15-year-old daughter, he has missed her growing up. He does not understand what they have been through and he struggles with all that he has experienced too. This scenario is repeated across Ukraine so please pray for all those struggling in this way, that God will bring them personal peace and the strength to carry on.

▶ We pray for civilians like Olya's father who is a builder. He is not fighting but still works close to the front line, helping to rebuild destroyed buildings and sees the full destruction of war each day. He is really struggling to cope mentally, if he stops doing this work, he will be conscripted and sent to fight. We pray that God gives him and others like him the strength to carry on.

▶ We give thanks for Pastor Maxime and his wife, Svetlana, she and a group of ladies are sewing uniforms, medical packs, autumn camouflage nets and oversized sleeping bags (so the soldiers can sleep in their uniforms). She also runs a much-needed group for widows and wives.

▶ We pray for our partner churches: their ministry to displaced people, children and churches providing fresh bread, food, clothing, etc. as well as the ongoing role of ministry. We pray that God gives them the strength to carry on.

▶ We give thanks for the life of one of our partner Pastors who was called up and has been killed in action. We pray for his family and church at this extremely difficult time.

▶ Pray for Pastor Neuri and his wife Natalia who, despite the huge risk, continue to live in Kherson where there are daily drone attacks on civilians and landmines the size of pebbles dropped on pavements. They stay because the people need them and the support they can bring (such as running a school/ soup kitchen/bakery). Despite the dangers they say they see God's love and mercy each day.

▶ We give thanks for the summer camps held this year where, for a week, children could just be children without the fears of war. The smiling faces said it all.

▶ We give thanks for all those we have been able to help so far (we were shown numerous videos which the people wanted us to see) they are so thankful that they have not been forgotten.

▶ We pray for all our partners: the personal and emotional challenges they face at home or on the front.

▶ We give thanks that during these terrible times the number of Christians in Ukraine is increasing and pray that God continues to strengthen them.

▶ We pray for protection, both for those on the front line and those at home, for their mental and physical wellbeing. For the injured and for those awaiting news. We also pray for the widows and fatherless and all those who mourn.

But most of all we pray that God will work in the lives of world leaders, that they would do all they can to bring about a lasting and just peace.

Please also pray for the trustees of CR2EE that they can discern where the need is the greatest and how to help.

This work is only possible because of your continued support. Thank you. If you think you can help in any way please contact Nick or Sarah and please, please continue to pray each day.

for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.”*

THAT is appealing for Advent Calendars to give out this Christmas. If you are able to help, please could you bring along your contribution to Sunday Worship, 15th November will be the last collection date.

KCBC FELLOWSHIP TOGETHER

Father God, Thank you for ensuring that, alongside the Good News and many acts of faith in action, you also provide guidance on how to equip ourselves to deal with false teachers.

As we listen to the news and see events unfolding around the world, we can acknowledge that there are many who are only using your name and Jesus' teachings to serve their own ends, to justify their sinful actions, greed and disdain for your children. Help us to be more compassionate when we speak with people who say they believe and yet go against those teachings, give us the words, patience and care to speak justly with mercy and humbly without alienating them. When we see acts of injustice may the Spirit embolden us to speak out or stand up for what is right and just in your eyes, do not allow us to be onlookers no matter how uncomfortable we feel – you promised never to leave us, that you have a plan and a purpose for our life, we pray that we live these truths.

Father God, we pray your perfect peace will move among the nations, and that men and women of great faith will rise up to lead us away from what is harmful. We pray that as we walk with Jesus, he continues to be our greatest example every day of our lives. In his precious name,

AMEN

From time to time, we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along – a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share ..... kbcscscribe@hotmail.com
