Church Forum

As many of you will know, our minister David Goddard will be retiring in the Autumn. This will be our first opportunity to discuss, ask questions, and pray together about the implications of this for KCBC.

At the meeting we will outline the Baptist Union process for a 'pastoral vacancy,' let you know where we have got to with this process and then have an open time of Q & A.

At the meeting we will not be making any immediate decisions but rather listening to God and each other about this important time for our fellowship.

This meeting is open to all ... members and regular attenders. Note that neither David or his wife Claire will be at the meeting, and it will be chaired and run by the deacons.

From the Minister

Easter is over. Well, not really. It is easy to pack up Easter and put it away, but the Good News of Easter is there to take us through the next year.

We had a very thought provoking insight into Jesus in the Passover from Aviel Sela. We can take that into communion celebrations to enrich our times. Maundy Thursday communion reminds us of the intimacy Jesus shared with His disciples as we were able to join together in the homely environment of Nat and Helen's home.

Good Friday was an altogether different worship experience allowing for many ways to engage in worship, marking the way of the cross. And Easter Sunday was a joyful time of worship leading us from the cross to the victory of Jesus in His resurrection.

We take that all with us as we continue to follow Jesus. Easter is not over. It's never over. Good News for every day.

David

On Palm Sunday we were blessed to host Aviel who shared the Gospel in the Passover. If you wish to hear the teaching for the first time or listen again to soak it in even more, go to the KCBC website and click on the 'Recent Sermons' (top right on the page) and look for Sunday 13th April 2025 "Jesus in the Passover".

"Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing" 1 Thess. 5:11

From Sarah

I included this twice in the newsletter over the years, on the second occasion June told me how much it had touched her. Then David spoke around it on Sunday 6th April so it feels right to share it again....

These are the lyrics for a song entitled "He's been in my shoes" based on Hebrews 2: 18, 4: 15, I heard it again recently, and feel it is something I need to remember every day...

*Here in my hour of need I am lonely, forsaken again
I'm wounded and left here to bleed
With no solace from a stranger or friend
Who hears my cry to revive and restore
One who has been here before
He's been in my shoes
Been down this road before
He's been tested too
He's been through this door
He feels the pain and He heals the bruise*

*He's been in my shoes
He's been in my shoes
The Union of God in a man*

*Is a mystery that I can't understand
 But now with my suffering known
 I'm reminded that I'm never alone
 Who has been tried and been tempted this way?
 Jesus who now hears me pray
 He was a man just like me
 But He lived His life blamelessly
 Now I'm beginning to see
 He holds my hand He understands*

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share kbcscscribe@hotmail.com

"So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" Isaiah 41:10

Adonai, My tears flow as I remember the outpouring of love you showed to the whole world as you suffered and died for my sins and those same tears fall as tears of joy for the miracle of Easter as you rose from the grave and conquered death. You won the victory, so I may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

Thank you for the hope given to me, and to those who live in fear, to those who are sick, to those who know only violence, to those who live in poverty and hunger, to those whose souls are burdened, and to those who are still seeking. Your arms stretched wide to envelop the whole world in your embrace and only you were able to bring me back into relationship with the Living God.

May I keep my eyes fixed on the way, the truth and the life, may my lamp burn brightly in anticipation of your arrival, and may I be ever vigilant as I wait, wait on you Lord so that I am ready when you call me by name.

In the precious name of my Almighty Saviour, Amen

CAP Teignbridge offers free debt help, practical & emotional support, and to show people that there is always hope. Working in partnership with local churches across Teignbridge, we help to lift the weight of debt from your shoulders.

We are still very short of befrienders, and we would be grateful if you could please prayerfully consider whether you could be part of this support team. Thank you. The minimum commitment is only 2 hours/month, and you would need to be a good listener and passionate about supporting those in poverty. PRAYER We have a Prayer Support Team who meet once a month to pray for CAP clients and the work of CAP Teignbridge. This is invaluable and makes a huge difference. If you would like to join this team, please get in touch. Please contact Tim Wigley, Debt Centre Manager at timwigley@capuk.org
