Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing” 1 Thess. 5:11

From time to time we all need an extra word of encouragement, a boost or a spiritual hug, so if you have something you'd like to share with the whole fellowship, please do pass it along - a Bible Verse, a particular passage, a faith song, study resource, an idea or simply a passing thought. If you feel that something has been of benefit to you, and you want to share kbcscscribe@hotmail.com

A potential resource - Following on from the recent Know Your Bible event in Torquay, I have prayerfully been giving some thought to bringing KYB closer to KCBC and would like to set up a Ladies KYB Study Group, potentially starting in September. The KYB Study Groups have been in place for a number of years and have been a wonderful resource tool for women to grow, and become more confident, in their faith. I believe that now is the season to bring this much valued resource to the women here at KCBC. So, where do I go from here it will be held on the first and third Monday afternoon each month, location to be confirmed; each study will last approx 2 hours and will follow a Study Book - there is a cost involved with the books, around £4, which consist of an introductory section together with 8 studies. Next, where do you go from here if you are interested in joining this group (and I would say that to be successful we need at least 4 ladies), please could you let me know by 20th July - this will provide ample time to sort out all the logistics, including the start date, and source the studies. Of course, if you would like to discuss this further, please don't hesitate to contact me, I look forward to hearing from you! Natalie

Invited to BELONG

Welcoming children, young people and adults with additional needs.

The workshop includes a comprehensive colour A4 training workbook and a wealth of information and resources.

Mark Arnold is the Additional Needs Ministry Director at leading national Christian children's and youth organisation Urban Saints and is Co-Founder of the Additional Needs Alliance, a vibrant and fast-growing online community. He is an enthusiastic national and international advocate and ally for children and young people with additional needs. Mark blogs as the national award winning 'The Additional Needs Blogfather', and is father to James who is Autistic and also has Learning Difficulties, Epilepsy, and Social Anxiety.

Please sign up by the 1st July via admin@totnesunitedfree.org.uk

Just sharing this free training event happening here on Sat 12th July. Some of us might have done the online training with Mark Arnold via the SWBA. This event is the same, but in person. It's all about how churches can better welcome and support those with additional needs. It's for everyone, from our Welcome Teams, to Kids/Youth Teams, to Leadership Teams, etc.

This event is FREE thanks to the generosity of the Totnes Churches. To book please email admin@totnesunitedfree.org.uk

If you are seeking ways to serve God and the church, want to learn more about our God, participate on a course, or join prayer gatherings look no further than the Baptist Union of Great Britain and/or SWBA websites, both of which have a Calendar of Events to peruse. Follow either of these links: www.baptist.org.uk or www.swbaptists.org.uk if you would like to know more.

Further Upcoming Training with Pathways, SWBA

If you are looking at expanding your gifts Pathways is hosting the following training days, there are further details for each of these modules, on the SWBA website, www.swbaptists.org.uk together with proposed 2026 modules.

20/09 & 18/10 - Mission & Evangelism tutored by Carl Smethurst & James Henley, SWBA, to explore what mission encompasses, its biblical and theological basis. This is a part of Pathways a modular programme created to equip and form those serving in all forms of ministry.

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" Isaiah 41:10

Our Father, our Living God creator of the universe, of all that is seen and unseen. Your truth runs through our lives and our thoughts that you will never leave us, that we can turn to you with our prayers and petitions and you will answer us, Lord, and we give you thanks and praise for this reassurance. We look around your creation and see desperate scenes of war, some which have been ongoing and others more recent but always with the same results; violence, death, fear, displacement and cruelty. We confess that at times we feel helpless and fearful of the outcomes, despite knowing that you are near us always, but sometimes, Lord, in our human frailty we are overwhelmed. And then, Lord, we remember, we are not helpless because we know the power of prayer, so we pray fervently to you Lord some words from a prayer attributed to St Francis of Assisi so heartfelt in these days -

*..... make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness joy*

In the precious name of Jesus we pray, Amen

Christian Response to Eastern Europe Update and Prayer requests from May 2025

So much is going on at the moment BUT we can make a difference.

MOLDOVA - Prayer Points

- ▶ Our partners: their ministry to churches, children and poor families
- ▶ Christians in Moldova: Church planting
- ▶ Economic and political situation

UKRAINE - Prayer Points

- ▶ A lasting peace.
- ▶ Our partners: their ministry to displaced people, children and churches.
- ▶ Our partners: the personal and emotional challenges they face.
- ▶ The widows, orphans and injured soldiers.
- ▶ Christians in Ukraine: Strengthening and increase.

There is much more happening in Moldova and Ukraine that needs our prayers and our thankfulness. If you would like to know more about the ongoing prayer requests or answers to prayer please ask Sarah. If you would like further information about cr2ee or have anything to donate, Nick & Sarah would be only too pleased to hear from you.

CAP Teignbridge offers free debt help, practical & emotional support, and to show people that there is always hope. Working in partnership with local churches across Teignbridge, we help to lift the weight of debt from your shoulders.
